Dear Prime Minister,

Firstly, thank you for your reply to my letter, in which you put forward your case very clearly.

But the main reason for me writing to you is to offer my best wishes after learning of the peace talks and witnessing the historic signing in Washington earlier this week. I realize it's only the first step and there will be difficult days ahead and so I wish you peace now and in the future. Shalom.

Dear Mr. Haber,

I wish to thank you for your response to a letter from a member of our local Amnesty International Group, of which I am Secretary and Treasurer.

On my own behalf, I would like to acknowledge the courage which has led the leaders of the Israelis and the Palestinian Organisation to take the great step towards halting the persistent acts which have prevented peace amongst your peoples.

There is much earnest work ahead to achieve wide-ranging peace, and still heartbreak, but I hope it will not be too long before the poor children will no longer be used and come under fire, and their parents have less to fear for them and for themselves.

Yours sincerely,

V. Allsop.

Dear Mr.Eitan Haber,

Thank you for your letter concerning the involvement of children in the Intifada, and for explaining the conditions which exist and your policy.

I have sent copies of them to Amnesty International and it would be nice if they were to publish them.

Congratulations to Israel for your agreement with the PLO. I think most of the civilised world hopes your astute move results in a more settled Middle East, despite the personalities of some of the Heads of State involved in the area.

Happy New Year, good luck, best wishes, and thank you.

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter, in response to mine, regarding the killing of Arab children in the territories and the destruction of homes.

You refer to the peace negotiations taking place, with hopes for their success.
Since then they have, of course, been successfully concluded to the great credit of all concerned. This is wonderful news and a very valuable example to the rest of the world. As you say, in your letter to me, Jews and Arabs are enabled, because of these successful talks, to live in peace and security. I am so pleased.

Yours sincerely,

Aveil Morill.

Dear Mr Rabin

I am sure by now that you must have received thousands of letters from people like us, Jews living outside of Israel. We wanted to let you know that you have our thanks, for promoting the peace, our admiration for your achievement and our full support for all that you have done.

Here in England there are, of course, two points of view, one speaking for peace at any price; the other, pointing out the untrustworthiness of the Arabs and disagreeing vehemently with giving away the land. We, that is my husband and I, are somewhere in the middle (typical!) but since we who do not even live in Israel know all the pitfalls, we are sure that so, also, do you!

We all watched the historic events in Washington on television and our hearts went out to you and Mr Peres. We believed we knew the conflicting emotions you must have felt, the hope for a beginning of peace and then a handshake with your former enemy, a self professed killer of Jews. However hard it must have been for you, if that shaking of hands can save one Jewish life then it will be worth the cost.

Please do not think this letter is a political lecture, its sole purpose is to let you know we are behind you, we support you and we pray for you.

L'Shanah Tovah to you and all the people of Israel.

Shalom,

Kathy Levene

The address of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin on the occasion of The signing of the Israeli-Palestinian Declaration of Principles
Washington D.C.
September 13, 1993

President Clinton, President of the United States, Your Excellencies, Ladies and Gentlemen,

This signing of the Israeli-Palestinian Declaration of Principles, here today, is not so easy -- neither for myself, as a soldier in Israel's wars, nor for the people of Israel and not for the Jewish people in the Diaspora, who are watching us now with great hope, mixed with apprehension. It is certainly not easy for the families of the victims of violence, terror and war, whose pain will never heal. For the many thousands who defended our lives with their own, and have even sacrificed their lives for our own -- for them, this ceremony has come too late.

Today, on the eve of an opportunity for peace -- and perhaps an end to violence and wars -- we remember each and every one of them with everlasting love.

We have come from Jerusalem, the ancient and eternal capital of the Jewish people. We have come from an anguished and grieving land. We have come from a people, a home, a family, that has not known a single year -- not a single month -- in which mothers have not wept for their sons. We have come to try and put an end to the hostilities, so that our children and our children's children will no longer have to experience the painful cost of war, violence and terror.

We have come to secure their lives, and to ease the sorrow and the painful memories of the past -- to hope and pray for peace.

Let me say to you, the Palestinians: We are destined to live together, on the same soil in the same land. We, the soldiers who have returned from battle stained with blood, we who have seen our relatives and friends killed before our eyes, we who have attended their funerals and cannot look into the eyes of their parents, we who have come from a land where parents bury their children, we who have fought against you, the Palestinians -- We say to you today in a loud and clear voice: Enough of blood and tears. Enough.

We have no desire for revenge. We harbor no hatred towards you. We, like you, are people who want to build a home, to plant a tree, to love, live side by side with you -- in dignity, in empathy, as human beings, as free men. We are today giving peace a chance and again saying to you: Let us pray that a day will come when we will say, enough, farewell to arms.

We wish to turn over a new chapter in the sad book of our lives together -- a chapter of mutual recognition, of good neighborliness, of mutual respect, of understanding. We hope to embark on a new era in the history of the Middle East.

Today, here in Washington, at the White House, we will begin a new reckoning in relations between peoples, between parents tired of war, between children who will not know war.

President of the United States, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Our inner strength, our higher moral values, have been derived for thousands of years from the Book of Books, in one of which, Ecclesiastes, we read:

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under Heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to love, and a time to hate; A time of war, and a time of peace."

Ladies and Gentlemen, the time for peace has come.

In two days, the Jewish people will celebrate the beginning of a new year. I believe, I hope, I pray that the New Year will bring a message of redemption for all peoples: a good year for you, for all of you. A good year for Israelis and Palestinians. A good year for all the peoples of the Middle East, for you our American friends who so want peace and are helping to achieve it, for Presidents and members of previous administrations, especially for you, President Clinton and your staff, for all citizens of the world: may peace come to all your homes.

In the Jewish tradition, it is customary to conclude our prayers with the word "Amen". With your permission, men of peace, I shall conclude with words taken from the prayer recited by Jews daily, and I ask the entire audience to join me in saying "Amen":

"May He who makes peace on High, make peace for us and for all Israel, Amen."

13 September, 1993,

Mr. Prime Minister,

You are my hero. Like many people around the world, I had tears in my eyes as I watched the ceremony in Washington. I can only imagine what an emotional experience it was for you. As you once told me, it takes courage to send men into battle. I think it takes even greater courage to realize, as you have, that it is sometimes more brave to gamble, as President Clinton said, that the future can be better than the past. You know better than I, just how difficult the days ahead will be - but I'm very proud of you and am honored to have you as a friend.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

Nearly two decades ago, when you served as Ambassador in Washington, my wife, Lois, had the pleasure of coordinating your visit to Portland. Since then, our many conversations have continued to illumine the marvelous blend you make of the practical and the hopeful, the real and the imaginable. I recall visiting with Golda on her dream, to be able to say: "We made it; there is peace in Israel." You have helped that dream become real.

The boldness of action with the steadfastness of your courage have ushered in a 5754 filled with more promise than ever before. For you and yours, a very good, abiding and peaceful year of rewarding fulfillment.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister,

Peace and justice for both Israelis and Palestinians are indeed something of value. There is a need both to strive for ideals, principles, and that which is practical. Israel has a right to exist. The Palestinians have a right to expect a better life and to have their just grievances settled in a fair manner. The hate that occupies that region of the world is very old. The change from violence to peace will take courage, patience, and rationale on the part of all parties. I applaud this small first step on the road to peace. I hope that in the future both parties will move toward this goal at their own speed and by their own choice. Such an end to hostility can only come through the action of both these people. The peace that will come from recent events will be something for the Jewish and Palestinian peoples and something that is not meant to be the property of the rest of the world. The fruits of peace belong to both of these people. In the words of Jesus, "Blessed are the peacemakers!"

Shalom and Shalam,

Dear Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin:

I was born in Poland on March 18/17. I left Poland with my parents in 1922 and have lived in Toronto Canada ever since.

I served almost 5 years with the R.C.A.F. from Oct 40 to Sept 45. Except for one living cousin I lost all my relatives living in Poland in the Holocaust.

In 1948 I lost an old school chum and R.C.A.F. comrade Wilfred Cantor who served in the Israel Air Force. One of my grandsons Reuben Applebaum is presently enrolled in his first year in Tel Aviv University.

As a Jew I feel I must write to thank you for your courage and leadership on the bold venture you and your government displayed on Monday Sept. 11/93 in Washington. The entire world shared the event by T.V. satellite simultaneously as you spoke. Israelis and Jews throughout the world sobbed uncontrollably. The moment seemed like a lifetime flashing the history and struggle of the Jewish people.

I believe this historic event in Washington helped to humanize the Palestinian people. I pray that they can become more human and learn to live in peace. As you said "The real test will be to what extent both sides will keep their commitments."

I know the people of Israel have many difficulties ahead. I pray and hope that "God" gives you the strength and wisdom to help us in our struggle.

I would like to thank you, your government and the people of Israel for giving the Jews in the Diaspora hope and pride.

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Prime Minister,

Like you I want to believe that the peace process will work for Israel and the entire Middle East. I have had many concerns and reservations over these past several months. On several occasions I have even shed tears and spent sleepless nights worrying about the future.

2nd of our beloved Jewish State.
All this and I'm not even

However, I am an American Jew who loves Israel with all her heart and I want to make Aliyah in the not distant future. I would like to see many, many American Jews make Aliyah to Israel to help build up the economy so that all Israelis may be gainfully employed and so that all new Aliot

I hope that Israel will act-

Aliyah and business investment.

American Jews need to be wants You and it is your duty to the Jewish people to respond. Our people waited 2000 years to regain Eretz to lose it now. However ALL JEWS must do their part. If we don't hold up our part of the Covenant, perhaps HaShem will turn away from us. If so, it won't be the fault of Israelis who have will be the fault of the

Mr. Robin, I applaud you

With God's help, it will better for it.

Thank you for your moral courage to seek a true and I share your desire to seek

Dear Ms. Wilton,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

Dear Mr. Robin

Having read and heard by television of your approaching accord with the PLO or Palestine Liberation Organization, I approve of it heartily. To achieve a peace or lasting settlement with the Palestinian people as well as the Arab nations of the Middle East, Israel must have some accord with them people. Apparently they must deal with the PLO and Yasser Arafat to achieve any such agreement.

Even an oral agreement, or written in my opinion with Yasser Arafat would go along way in arriving at such high aims. The momentum is now, as suggested by Yasser, and it would be a shame if Israel does not seize the moment to achieve this aim. The agreement calling for limited Palestinian self rule in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank town of Jericho is a small concession to arrive at the recognition of the existence of the State of Israel.

May you and the Israeli government have success in your undertaking to have peace with the PLO and the Arab world.

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Elia Habs,

Thank you for your considered reply to my letter, sent September, 1993.

I have, of course, understood the cause of unrest, & the provocation to violence.
It is greatly to be hoped that after the current talks & agreements, understanding & peace will gradually prevail, and that all people on both sides can live without fear - in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

Yours respectfully,

Shalom Aleichem. I wanted to write you a letter of encouragement. I know that the peace process is very demanding, both mentally and physically!

Many people feel that you are wrong for negotiating with the P.L.O.; some even go as far as to call you a traitor. Prime Minister be of good cheer I know that you are a very brave man, and you have done in good conscience what you feel is best for Israel. It is my own feeling is that what God has given to Israel as a possession no man has the right to give away. I do not see that this peace will last because it is the work of men, and the Arab-Palestinian agenda has not changed at all. Please be very cautious in your dealings with them.

Please know that I am one of many people that are praying for God to grant you the wisdom and knowledge to do what is right, honorable, and pleasing in this sight. I hope that the people present continues to go well.

Entschuldigen Sie bitte

ja auf den Inhalt an!
Ihr G.N.

Sehr geehrte Herren, als Sie, sehr geehrter Herr Rabin vor etlichen Jahren einen Terroranschlag durch Ihr mutiges Eingreifen verhinderten, erhielten Sie von mir ein Telegramm, welches als Inhalt nur das eine Wort enthielt:

"B R A V O "

Und nun ist es wieder soweit, jetzt Ihnen beiden, meine Herren, zuzurufen:

"B R A V O" !!!

Was kaum ein Mensch für möglich gehalten hatte, Sie beide haben es, trotz mißgünstiger Unkenrufe -auch hier aus Deutschland- geschafft mit dem PLO-Führer Arafat Frieden zu schließen.

Das war eine Jahrhundertleistung!
Und Sie haben durch Ihre Initiative die Vergangenheit eingeholt.
Denn, wenn man die andere Seite nur mit Beschuldigungen täglich aufs Neue angreift, wird es niemals zwischen zwei "Bruder"-Völkern Frieden geben.
Ich gratuliere Ihnen, sehr geehrte Herren Rabin und Peres viele, viele Male!

So ein Mann von Ihrem Schlage, sehr geehrte Herren, so ein Mann fehlt uns hier in Deutschland als Vorsitzender des Zentralsrates der Juden in Deutschland!
Ja, allen ~~Erstes~~, so ein Mensch fehlt uns hier. Denn: Herr Ignatz Bubis gehört auch - leider - zu denen, die nicht vergessen können. Daß der mit seiner unbeliebten Art dauernd in der Vergangenheit herumzustochern, den Antiseminitismus nur "anheizt", scheint ihm nicht klar zu sein. Sich überall einzumischen, was wir zu machen hätten, schafft ihm keine Freunde. Seien Sie froh, daß er in Ihrem Lande nicht "die Kreise stören" kann. Außerdem kommt es immer zusätzlich darauf an, ob man den richtigen (versöhnlichen) Ton finden kann; er kann es leider nicht! Er sucht immer das Haar in der Suppe.

Die IGFM -internationale Gesellschaft für Menschenrecht-Deutsche Sektion in Frankfurt am Main, schreibt in ihren Oktober-1992-Mitteilungen: Wehe dem Volk, ~~das~~ mit einem Bann der Kollektivschuld belegt wird. Dies geschah dem deutschen Volk 1945 und in den darauffolgen Jahren. Gewiß, eine kollektive Verurteilung findet nicht ohne eigenes Verschulden statt. Trotzdem ist die falsch und ist ein Unrecht. Der Bann trifft nicht nur die an den Ereignissen unbeteiligten Frauen und Kinder, er trifft auch die späteren Generationen.
---Die Unterstreichungen sind wie im Original---

Sie haben, sehr geehrte Herrn, eine Jahrhundertleistung vollbracht. Die Welt sollte Ihnen auf Knien danken!

Ich tue es mit meinem Brief!

Dear Ms. Monika,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

Sehr geehrter Herr Ministerpraesident :

Genug des Blutvergiessens, genug der Traenen- das sind Worte die Zukunft sein sollten. Der erste Schritt ist schon getan, aber der Weg zum Ziel ist noch weit.

Zu viele Probleme werden noch kommen- zuviele Feinde werden sich den Friedensbemuehungen in den Weg stellen. Doch das Ziel wird eine Tages erreicht werden. Durch Maenner wie Sie, die den Anfang ermoeglicht haben.

Ich danke Ihnen fuer den Mut und die Entschlossenheit die Sie bewiesen haben und hoffe, dass wir es alle noch erleben koennen, dass Juden und Palaestinenser, wenn schon nicht in Freundschaft, dann doch in Respekt nebeneinander leben koennen.

Denn nun hat der schwierigste Kampf begonnen, der Kampf um Frieden.

Ich wuerde mich sehr freuen, ein paar Zeilen von Ihnen zu erhalten.

Alles Gute

Ses Excellences, Ses Majestés, Messieurs,

D'abord, je voudrais présenter mes félicitations à Vous, Son Excellence M. Yitzhak Rabin, à Vous M. Péres et à Vous M. Yasser Arafat à l'occasion de cette reconnaissance mutuelle palestino-israélo et exprimer en même temps mon admiration pour Vous d'avoir oser faire ce grand premier pas vers la paix.

J'étais ravie d'apprendre cette bonne nouvelle d'autant plus que durant des années, moi aussi, j'ai fait tout mon possible en tant que personne privée pour pouvoir apporter une contribution modeste à ce premier réjouissant résultat historique.

J'espère, pourtant, que tous les autres pays arabes seront conscient de la nécessité de cet accord. Surtout ceux qui se sentent frustrés par le fait de ne pas avoir été consultés là-dessus auparavant, ainsi que ceux qui sont hostiles à ce traité de paix conclu et qui croient dur comme fer au recours à la violence afin d'enfourcher ainsi leurs opinions. Bref, ces solutions ne consistent qu'en un cercle vicieux! Je voudrais que Vous vouliez voir ce premier traité de paix sous une autre angle; c'est à dire: Comme une percée historique entre Palestiniens et Israéliens relatif aux autres pays arabes qui doit mettre un terme à des effusions de sang inutiles et qui est le début d'une collaboration étroite entre l'Etat hébreux et les pays arabes pour faire ainsi un effort de surmonter tous les problèmes et les contentieux réciproques, ensemble.

De plus, je voudrais que Vous compreniez que ces premiers pas vers la paix témoigne d'un grand courage et d'une bonne volonté de ces trois hommes pour assurer ainsi la paix de tous les peuples du Moyen-Orient. Aussi méritent-ils bien Votre soutien entier.

Je sais qu'il ne s'agit qu'un petit pas et qu'il n'y a pas de grands changements à viser tout de suite mais je Vous garantis que la haine et la violence que certains parmi Vous continuent à proclamer ne produisent que l'effet contraire et ne font que porter atteint à tous les progrès!!! En effet, n'est-il pas grand temps d'abandonner ces idées radicales et d'aboutir à une réconciliation mutuelle dans l'intérêt de tous? Le chemin vers la paix est encore long mais maintenant il est en cours.

Pour en revenir aux prises d'otages, je Vous signale que je continue à m'engager pour eux. Malheureusement ma lettre du 12 août, adressé à Vous, Dr. Samir Geagea est toujours restée sans réponse jusqu'ici!! J'espère pourtant que Vous voudriez me répondre dans l'intérêt de tous les otages.

En Vous souhaitant beaucoup de courage, je Vous prie d'agréer Ses Excellences, Ses Majestés, Messieurs l'expression de mes sentiments distingués,

Dear Prime Minister Rabin,

The peace accord which was signed September 13 brought tears to my eyes. The handshake between you and Chairman Arafat symbolizes the chance for peace. It was not just two people touching each other's hands, it was a significant new beginning, a new possibility which the world has long yearned for.

This new possibility, begun by two former enemies who are searching for a compromise, inspires all of us to work together for a better world. It has already inspired me, personally, to reconcile with a former "enemy."

Thank you for taking this step forward and giving us new hope.

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Sincerely yours,

still carries it. So still I don't know what the hell are we fighting for? There are a lot of moslems who want peace but they were afraid of talking about it. Now that Chairman Arafat put his life on the line we all can freely talk to our Jewish brothers and live with them in peace. So Chairman Arafat should get the greatest credit for this. I wrote a letter to president Clinton about this and I will write to Chairman Arafat too. I hope you all will receive my letters please answer me if you can, you never know I might be of great help to you someday. May Allah be with you your family and your people.

Good Luck Mr. Prime Minister the exodus from Egypt is finally comes to an end after thousands of years and your people here have to be proud of. Respectfully Your Excellency?

For a few weeks I am trying to write you, there is so much I don't know where to start. I am going to start the first that come to my mind.

Congratulations Mr. prime minister and foreign minister Peres. The miracle of peace between two brothers has come true in my lifetime. Mr. prime minister I come from a military family too. My father was former Afghanistan's army chief of staff and secretary of defence during the reign of king Mohammad Zahir Shah. He was a general like you. Mr. prime minister during 1956 Suez canal war my father was Afghanistan Ambassador to Iraq and Jordan. I saw the whole thing. 1967 I was in Beirut and saw the whole that thing. AT THE TIME General Dayan was secretary of defence and you were Israeli army chief of staff. Your ingenuity during rescue in Uganda, ~~but~~ there are ~~too~~ many to list. To me you are a mystery. Are you the re-incarnation of Moses or what. Moses started the exodus from Egypt but you truly and officially found home for your chosen people. No matter how strong Israel was or is without official recognition by her neighbors would not have been ~~official~~ officially in the community of Nations. So with your ingenious efforts you succeeded to find a home for Palestinians and Jews. In Afghanistan we say you shot two birds with one bullet. Are you the last of the prophets or what? You, chairman Arafat, Mr. Peres and President Clinton deserve the Noble Peace prize. If you ~~don't~~ don't get it then I will lose my respect for that organization. All our hearts and souls are with you and chairman Arafat so may Allah be with you and chairman Arafat push forward with the peace process, do not fear Satan's threats at the end you will make history and Satan will fail as always. If I can be of any help please drop me a note directly or through your contacts. I told my Palestinian and Arab friends that this is the last chance it there will never be another chance in our lifetime. I will take a trip to Israel as soon as I can most probably that is the Chosen Land ~~as~~ might be said by the Holy Spirit. Remember Mr. Rabin Islam and Judaism is very similar. Most of our prophets are the same. Most of the Korans revelations come from Judaism. In fact Islam is an orthodox or stricter form of Judaism. (Ramadan) fasting also Jews fest. The sacrifice of Lamb in feast of (AL-KORBAN) Jews dropped it and
