Dear Mrs. Riemer,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him that is afar and to him that is near".

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Prime Minister,

Mazel tov on the signing which took place this morning!! You spoke magnificently, and made us so proud. Our prayers are with you as this new day dawns, and in this New year.

I am also proud of my husband, and that is why I am writing to tell you something that he never would.

Recently, someone showed you a sermon titled "Az Mir Lebt...". I understand that you admired it, and I wanted you to know that it was written by my husband (who is an extremely gifted author, <sup>teacher</sup> and preacher).

He was very pleased to hear that you liked it, as was I. High praise indeed.

Sincerely yours in admiration,

Dear Mr Rabin

After watching the signing of the agreement with the PLO, I decided to write to you to express my thoughts.

We have come a long way, and the worst I feel is behind us. There is no doubt that Cain will raise his head a thousand times, but with a quiet determination we stride irresistibly on.

Perhaps this short verse will convey the hope that I feel.

'Latent beauty hidden lies
In all mankind it doth abound
As sun before its moment comes
Is hidden low beneath the ground'

Yours sincerely

Dear Prime Minister Rabin,

Thank you so much for saying "yes" and changing the atmosphere in the West: "yes" to talking with the PLO; "yes" to coming to Washington for the ceremony on September 13; "yes" when Chairman Arafat offered you his land; "yes" when I shared with the world your deeply felt hopes and fears for the future, in your remarks in Washington.

You are in my prayers and I know you will be filled with the power of faith and courage to lead your people in the Land work ahead.

When you gave your noble plea for peace on the White House Lawn, it touched the hearts of many peoples throughout the world. The beloved quotations from the Old Testament eloquently spoken with sincere dignity moved all of us, watching the scene unfold on the television in our homes.
It lifted us all (the military, diplomats, to renewed hope for an era of peace throughout the Middle East and all the countries round about.

The next day I found this little poem, a small "Thank you" from us all.

A Song of Zion

Psalm 137:1-4

MYRTLE DAUGHERTY

EXILES in Babylon,
They wept beside the rivers
And hung their harps on the willow trees.
Their captors required of them a song,
Even a song of Zion.

"How shall we sing the Lord's song
In a strange land?" they asked.

Had they forgotten that Zion is Where Babylon seems to be,
The Lord's song everywhere
Forever sung,
Not silenced by exile or captivity?

Now, here, the healing Word
In matchless melody is heard.
No harp hangs hushed
On a willow bough.
Chorus primitive—
Angels chanting, morning stars singing—
Freely flowing
Swells the eternal song of Zion.

Dear Sir:

I watched with great interest when you signed the Peace Treaty in Washington. I felt your pain as you spoke of the many years of suffering for your people. I admired you the most, because you spoke with such conviction.

I have before me the reply to my letter of Aug 12, '92. You spoke of the encouragement you got from Christian friends all over the world. My Christian church has a young minister (56) that has been to Israel, and loves your people.

I am sending an article from the Endtimes Star by Cal Thomas, my favorite Christian writer. He feels your pain, and knows just what danger lies ahead. He said in another article that Israel must trust in God and keep their powder dry.

Our prayers are with you all.

The PLO-Israel 'piece' agreement

CAL THOMAS

If you were Yasser Arafat and in decline on the world stage, drained of power and influence among your own people and shunned by much of the Arab world because you supported Saddam Hussein's shelling not only of Israel but of Saudi Arabia, what would you do to save yourself? How could you continue the pursuit of a Palestinian state that could be used to eliminate the nation of Israel and its people? You would do precisely what Arafat has done — make "peace" with Israel.

It was sickening to watch members of Congress fawn over Arafat, asking for his autograph and treating him like a candidate for the Nobel peace prize. This man is responsible for the deaths of thousands of Israeli civilians, including schoolchildren.

What we are witnessing in the Middle East "peace process" is a replay of that old liberal attitude toward the Soviet Union in the 1970s. So many liberals believed that the Soviet leadership was basically good, not bad, and the problem was not in their country, but in ours. We were told on countless talk shows and by academics, clergy and pundits that our bad attitude made the Soviets "defensive" and that if we would just "give peace a chance," all would be well.

The stuff of Stephen King novels

That's why Ronald Reagan was ridiculed when he spoke of the "evil empire." A lot of liberals believe that a concept like evil is the stuff of Stephen King novels, not Realpolitik.

This mentality has surfaced again in people such as Alexander Schindler, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Schindler wrote a column in the New York Times criticizing those in Israel and America who distrust Arafat.

Schindler wrote that people who are suspicious of the PLO-Israel agreement suffer from "ideological rigor mortis" and that they "see peace as the weak sister of victory, not the bride of confidence." In fact, they see this as an arranged marriage that is far less likely to succeed than one in which the parties choose each other with the best motives.

Which Arafat is to be believed — the one who says he will do all he can to control the unruly terrorist groups such as Hamas, who have denounced the agreement and vowed to fight on, or the one who says "the Palestinian state is at hand and the Palestinian flag will soon fly over Jerusalem"?

When the stray cat is fed, it comes back for more.

What we are witnessing is a replay of that old liberal attitude toward the Soviet Union in the 1970s.

Those who believe the PLO will be satisfied with even full autonomy in Jericho and Gaza are doubly deceived. They have been deceived by Arafat and they have deceived themselves.

Likud Party leader Benjamin Netanyahu has rightly raised the analogy of Hitler and Neville Chamberlain, who thought he could buy "peace in our time" by sacrificing Czechoslovakia in an earlier "land-for-peace" deal. On his deathbed, Chamberlain said, "Everything would have been all right if Hitler hadn't lied to me."

This is the inevitable result when we forget that evil exists and that some people in the world are evil and cannot be dissuaded by high-sounding words and virtuous intentions.

Would have made peace years ago

There are many good Palestinians who would have made genuine peace with Israel years ago, but they were assassinated by those who now wrap themselves in the robe of statesmen in order to hide the blood on their clothes.

It does not take a prophetic gift to predict, sadly, what will happen next. There may be a season of what appears to be peace, but plotters and conspirators will be working to achieve their religious and political goal of eradicating the "Zionist infidels" and reclaiming the land for Allah.

I wish it weren't true, but this pact between Israel and Arafat is a "piece" agreement. It will allow Arafat to achieve, piece by piece, what he could not get all at once in five wars and numerous terrorist acts. This agreement will inevitably lead to another war.

Will the United States condemn those who make war against Israel in the future? Not if the recent past is any guide. Most likely Israel will hear those familiar calls for "restraint" when the rockets start falling on Tel Aviv or perhaps Jerusalem, as Israel's historical enemies fight on until their objective is achieved.

Good intentions may soothe our consciences in the short term, but they are not enough. Remember, good intentions are the paving material on the road to hell.

chance of survival.

"We've gotten so good at providing emergency cardiac care in the field . . . that we have taken the emergency room to the patient," said Dr. Arthur Kellermann, associate professor of emergency medicine and public health at Emory University in Atlanta and a researcher in one study.

"If there's a spark of life left, paramedics can fan it into a

Both studies involved paramedics who were in radio contact with doctors and were equipped to provide defibrillation, open a blocked airway and provide medication to cardiac arrest victims.

In the second study, a team led by Dr. Marni Bonnin in Houston found that of 952 people who suffered cardiac arrest and had no pulse when they reached the hospital, six survived until discharge.

The costs, both studies said, are huge. Transporting and trying to revive these patients costs $500 million a year, Bonnin's study estimated.

Prime Minister Rabin,

Tonight I am going to a Community Affirmation for the historic reconciliatory step that you took on September 13. I wanted to write this letter as a way of expressing my support for your part in bringing your nation closer to peace.

I am a volunteer with the Foundation for Global Community. I am a member of the Middle East Task Force. We held a conference in July 1991 where we brought Israelis and Palestinians to our country to work together for 5 days. These participants also took a courageous step for peace by signing a document that they had crafted themselves. They called this document a Framework for a Public Peace Process. These citizens could not make the kind of history that you can make. They, in their own way took a gigantic step towards healing the wounds that separate Israelis and Palestinians and keep them from being able to live without war.

I can only imagine how difficult it might have been for you to take this heroic step. For this step people throughout the world are eternally grateful.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Saltzman,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Sincerely yours,

His excellency Mr. I. Rabin:

You belong to the same party,. You adopted Mr. Abba Eban's point of view, because Mr. Eban was correct in his evaluation of the situation; Israel vs. the PLO.

I feel you would win enormous approval inviting Mr. Eban to your ministerial cabinet, and you will be able to gain from his wisdom, and overall talent.

Great injustice was done to this great man, it is time to repent.

Let me wish you a happy new year, and for Israel, perhaps, peace and prosperity in the coming years.

Dear Sir:

As an American Jew, I congratulate you on the historic steps you have taken for peace and security, and I extend my heartfelt best wishes for the success of your efforts.

The borders of Israel must always be secure. It is my belief that the security of Israel, in the long run, is best served by respect for the dignity and self-determination of the Palestinian people in what must ultimately be a Palestinian homeland, with secure borders for Israel and for the Palestinians with all of your neighbors.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Prime Minister;

It would be hard for me to match the eloquence of your historic words, on the occasion of your signing of the peace initiative with the Palestinian people. Having just returned from my first trip to Israel, I felt an enormous sense of elation. Your marvelous country has achieved so much in the face of adversity. It is truly mind boggling to envision the enormous possibilities that an Israel on the crest of peace could accomplish.

I know that the road to peace will not be an easy one. It is difficult to trust. It is also difficult to see scores of young men and women carrying machine guns as part of their daily ritual. You have taken a great gamble. It was the only choice. If the Arabs do not have good intentions, we all will be at risk.

I look forward to my return to Israel.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Perbin,

On the eve of the Jewish New Year, 1992, I was in Jerusalem sight seeing and I left my prayer in the Wailing Wall. I later wept in the grotto where Christ was born. I cannot thank you enough for the courage you have shown in helping to make my prayer come true. There still may be difficulties but I am sure they will be overcome.

Many years ago I was taken in a dream to a New Temple in Jerusalem which was nearing completion. My guide informed me it was Abraham's Temple & had been erected by all Nations to honour Abraham's God. The floor I was shown was magnificent but I was the emblem in blunders & on the Alter that interested me.

It was the Shield of David with the Cross of Christ at the centre. On enquiry I was told it was the emblem of a New Conisation yet to come, greater than any we had known. In some way this was to be brought about by Jews, Muslims & Christians working together.

Four actions this week have made what I thought an impossible dream become a possibility & I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

It would appear that the wonderful God we serve is still taking an interest in our World. May he Bless you.

Yours sincerely.

(Mrs). Eileen A. Chappell.

Dear Sir,

I watched the signing on TV yesterday and, like many, I fought back tears yet had no idea how I really felt. Like most Jews, I do not trust the PLO to continue with respect or moral integrity. Naturally, it's more worrisome to be unsure about a friend than be sure about an enemy. But, as you said so well, 'Enough!' For the children's sake, enough.

But really, I am really writing to say something else.

I would like to say, sir, that I am very proud that you are the Prime Minister of Israel. While I'm not sure where the future leads us, I trust you to take us there with wisdom and compassion.

May God bless you in the coming year.

The Honorable Yitzhak Rabin
Prime Minister of Israel
Jerusalem, Israel

Dear Mr. Rabin,

I write as an American Jew whose heart is with Israel: My son is an oleh living in Yerushalayim, I myself have lived in Israel, and I know that aliyah is in my own future. Please excuse me for writing in English, but my Hebrew is not sufficient to express what I want to say here. I do hope that somehow the words that I write will come to your attention.

Today I watched the signing of the peace agreement on television with great trepidation, unsure, as we all are, of what the future holds. And when you spoke, I wept, so much did the deep feeling of your words touch my heart. I want to extend to you a "y'shar koach," to salute you. The obvious sincerity of your personal struggle with what is now required of you is a mark of your integrity in this matter; your love of Israel and your devotion to her security and wellbeing are apparent. I respect your courage and your willingness to take painful steps for a more peaceful future.

I appreciate as well your pointed reference to "Jerusalem, the eternal capital of the Jewish people," and say an eager "amen" to that.

May you find continued strength and may the blessings of true peace come to all of Israel. Know that my prayers are with you.

Excellence,

Je suis un Nigérien de l'éthnie sonrhaï et musulman de confession, vivant à Niamey comme Ingénieur des Travaux Publics, je tiens par cette lettre à rendre un hommage au glorieux peuple Israëlien pour le caractère humain de son histoire plusieurs fois millénaire et particulièrement pour l'acte que venait d'accomplir avec courage et lucidité Messieurs ITZAK RABIN et SHIMON PERES.

Tous les africains qui ont eu comme moi, la chance de faire des études universitaires en Europe et qui en plus ont eu la chance d'être enseignés par des professeurs d'origine juive, de travailler dans des groupes comprenant des étudiants d'origine juive, de lire des ouvrages scientifiques écrits par des professeurs d'origine juive, d'avoir été admis dans les familles d'origine juive : sont j'en suis sûr, aujourd'hui véritablement enthousiasmés par la conclusion de l'accord Israëlo-Palestinien.

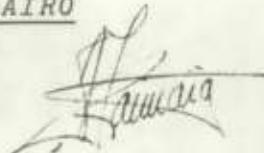

Après cet accord, le plus urgent pour nous sera la reprise rapide des bonnes relations diplomatiques entre nos pays et Israël. Les vingt années passées sans relations avec Israël, ont été très durement ressenties par nos pays au sud du Sahara.

Le savoir faire Israëlien a manqué dans l'exécution de nos projets. Ce savoir faire nous sera absolument nécessaire pour nous développer sur tous les plans.

Avec FREDERIK DEKLERCQ, Messieurs ITZAK RABIN et SHIMON PERES sont devenus les trois grands faiseurs de paix de notre fin de siècle.

En hommage pour leur courage, leur foi et leur volonté, ils méritent leur place dans l'histoire universelle. Notre génération et les générations à venir leur doivent une grande reconnaissance.

Sehr geehrte Damen und Herrn, mit Erleichterung und Sympathie haben wir den Abschluß der Verhandlungen mit der PLO verfolgt. Wir gratulieren allen Beteiligten von ganzem Herzen. Wir erkennen nicht die Ängste und Vorbehalte die in Ihrem Lande vorhanden sind. Wir meinen aber auch, daß der beschrittene Weg wohl der einzige mögliche ist. Gerade als Deutsche liegt uns daran, daß Israel im Frieden mit seinen Nachbarn leben kann. Viele unserer Freunde haben Ihr Land in der Vergangenheit besucht und mit Bewunderung erlebt mit welcher Tatkraft die Israelis ihr Land aufgebaut haben. Wir haben auch gefühlt, daß Israel nur dann eine sichere Existenz haben würde, wenn durch Verträge abgesichert und unter internationale Garantien Ruhe an den Grenzen herrscht. Dazu haben Sie, gemeinsam mit der PLO einen wichtigen Schritt getan. Vor Jahren haben wir hier Veranstaltungen mit PLO Vertretern und Israelis durchgeführt, die einzig dem Zweck dienten das Eis zu brechen.

Wir wünschen allen Menschen in um um Israel eine friedvolle Zukunft.

Shalom

Dear Mr. Rabin,

My wife and I congratulate you and Mr. Peres on your forthright stand in effecting the signing of the principles of accord between Israel and the PLO. We all hope a lasting peace comes of this beginning.

Some time ago, we had offered the idea(shown on enclosed copy of letter to Mr. Christopher) to the Bush Administration (whom we do not regard as friends of Israel) and to your predecessor in office. Nothing came of it obviously but we did get a reply from Mr. Shamir, nothing from Bush or Baker.

Perhaps now is a better time for this idea to take root. If you think it has merit, please try to implement it from your end. We are not in favor of giving the Palestinians one inch of Israel and likewise feel Israel would be better off with all of them removed to an area of their own--and what better place than a little piece of Jordan which is where they belong anyway).

Dear Ms. Jabbour,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Sincerely yours,

תמצית מכתב לרה"מ מאת Hala Deeb Jabbour מארת"ב.

... אני אשה אמריקאית. נולדתי בירושלים, פלסטין, ב-1943. כן, בדוק לפני חמישים שנה. חמישה עשרים. חצי מאה. לפני שנות חיים כوابים, לא בטוחים, כעוסים. אהיה ישירה איתך - שנאתי את ישראל וכל העם היהודי במשך ארבעים מהשנים האלה. באמת, שנאתי. הרגשתי כקרובן וכמי שמתעללים בה. זכות הבכורה שלי, הלאומיות שלי, המורשת שלי - כך הרגשתי - חוללו באוצריות. התבוססת ברחמים עצמים ובעכע.

... עכשו, אחרי שעברו חמישים שנות שפיכות דמים וטרואה, שוב יש לי את זכות הבכורה שלי. אני יכולה לומר בבטחון: אני ממוצאת פלסטינאי. אף אחד לא יאמר: מה? מי? איפה? זהה הרגשה נחרת!

עכשו, אני יכולה להתרחבר שוב אל המורשת שלי, ויום אחד, עצבע למפה ואומר לנכדי: "זהה הארץ שבה נולדתי". והנכד שלי לא יאמר לי: "אבל חשבתי שאת פלסטינאית. איך זה שאתה מוצביעה על ישראל?"

... עכשו, במקום כעס, אני יכולה להפגין הגיון. בבטחון ובעגווה. ואני יכולה לעלות מעל לכל הלחמים ולומר להם בחסdotות שהאובייבים המושבעים שלהם היו ידידיהם מחר. אני יכולה להבטיח להם בתקיפות שאף מלחמה לא נמשכת לנצח.

... הדרך שלפנינו קשה, כפי שאתה יודע היטב. אבל אני אחת מני פלסטינאים רבים אשר יתמכו בכוח המוסרי שלך וימשיכו איתך בדרך כשאנחנו צועדים בגבורה אל מחר שחשבנו שלא יגיע לעולם.

תודה, גנרל רבין. ההיסטוריה תזכיר לך כאחד האישים הגדולים של המאה. ולדיי, תמיד תהיה האדם שהחזיר את האמון שלי באנוות.

Dear Prime Minister Rabin,

I am writing today to thank you -- and Mr. Peres -- from the bottom of my heart for bringing about a colossal feat, and for overseeing the birth of an era of peace during your watch over Israel. Mazeltov, General, for taking this extraordinary step during my lifetime.

Some years ago, it would have been an act of treason to even remotely conceive that I would be addressing a letter of thanks to the Israeli Prime Minister, let alone to one of my enemy's foremost generals. But, here I am! Life is truly unpredictable!

Now you might be wondering what exactly am I thanking you for? Let me tell you.

I am an American woman. I was born in Jerusalem, Palestine in 1943. Yes, exactly fifty years ago. Five decades. Half a century. A painful, insecure, angry lifetime ago. And, let me level with you, I hated Israel and all the Jewish people throughout forty of those years. Really, hated. I felt victimized and abused. My birthright, my nationality, my heritage, I felt, had been brutally desecrated. And I wallowed in self-pity and rage.

V Briefly, in 1983, after the horrible massacres at Sabra and Shatila -- a place with which I was very familiar, and whose people I had known -- I took up my pen and addressed a Jewish woman. Leah. I asked her how much more it was going to take before we came to our senses. That letter shattered an invisible wall within my soul. It shred to smithereens the sinews of hatred seeping through my veins and cells. Its genuine emotion starkly staring at me demanded a follow-up. Begged for realization. I, who hadn't uttered a prayer since the start of the civil war in Lebanon, found myself praying for peace. And He heard me. He must have! For, the opportunity to realize my wish and to translate my yearning to dialogue with the imaginary Leah came knocking at my door. I had the privilege of meeting a Leah -- many Leahs! -- through The Dialogue Project which brought American Palestinian and American Jewish women together in an unprecedented forum.

Oh, General Rabin! We dialogued and argued. We pouted and postured. In one instance we were genuine and in another we were so pretentious! One minute we shed tears, the other we were as catty as we women can sometimes be! By the end of 1990, I had resolved the dilemma between the Israelis and Palestinians -- in my own heart and mind. I knew then, very clearly and unequivocally, that peace will happen. That it was possible. That taboos and ✓ barriers had fallen away. The psychological dam had battered itself through! It took two years -- and the Madrid Peace Conference -- for me to process that conviction and to smile as I heard the news filtering out of Norway that a magnificent breakthrough had, indeed, happened. I wasn't surprised. After all, I knew that it would happen. But I was, nevertheless, elated!

Now, having gone through fifty years of bloodshed and trauma, I have my birthright once again. I can confidently say: I am of Palestinian origin. No one will say: What? Where? Who? It is a tremendous feeling!

✓ Now, I can reconnect with my heritage and, one day, point to a map and tell my grandchildren, "this is the country where I was born." And my precocious American grandchild will not say to me: "But I thought you said that you were a Palestinian. How come you're pointing at Israel?" Also, I can recount how, in my own small way, I was one of the cornerstones on which the peace was built, and that I helped to painstakingly lay the foundations for it. How proud I will be! How starry-eyed they would be, those angelic grandchildren, as they look at me -- an instrument of peace -- in awe.

Now, rather than being so pathetically self-conscious when trying to explain the oh-so-complicated issue of Palestine, I can exult in my experience and proudly manifest how I went from belligerent enmity to peaceful coexistence.

✓ Now, rather than rage, I can exhibit reason. With confidence and pride. And I can rise above all warriors and patronizingly tell them that their sworn enemies of today will be their friends tomorrow. I can assertively promise them that no war lasts forever.

Now, I can die in peace. For this issue was an unfinished business in my life. A very, very unfinished business that would have nagged me all the way to Heaven. (Where all Palestinians and all Jews are going for we've all served our time in Hell. Yes, we have.)

Now, I can confidently and proudly link hands with my American Jewish sisters and brothers and march into America's angry neighborhoods and enraged enclaves touting peace and understanding, strewing the hate-ridden streets and drug-infested alleys with our message of tolerance and justice. Now, I have earned the right to do that. With authority. With the weight of a bloody experience on my back and the traces of grief-ridden tears still apparent on my cheeks.

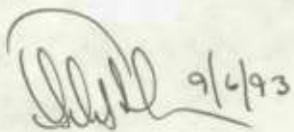

The pundits and the analysts are dissecting your motives. They seem so full of themselves as they inflate the air-waves and printed pages with their hypothesis and cynicism. They don't seem to know what I do, though: That it takes a mature sage who has been through the ravages of the Holocaust and survived those; who has gone through the past fifty years traumatized by this monumental tragedy; who underwent his own rage and battles with this trauma to know how worthwhile peace is. It takes a man of resolute conviction to put an end to the bloodbath that was shrivelling the soul of the Jewish people, and that of the Palestinian people, as they persisted in perpetuating Hitler's legacy on their ancient land, in full view of their prophet's saddened eyes. In the final analysis, all it took was the courage of the brave and the wisdom of the pained. All other reasons are peripheral. Isn't that so?

The road before us is mired, as you very well know. But I am one of many Palestinians who will support your fortitude and soldier on with you as we valiantly walk towards a tomorrow that we thought would never come.

✓ Thank you, General Rabin. You will go down in history as one of the greatest men of this century. And, in my books, you will always be the man who restored my faith in humanity.

Sincerely,
Hala Deeb Jabbour

 9/6/93

P.S. Did I hear you ask whether I have accorded Yasser Arafat a similar salutation? No, actually, I haven't. But then, the dear Old Man knows how the majority of Palestinians feel about him. Otherwise, do you think any of this would have come about?

Dear Mr Rabin,

We will probably never meet and without doubt you will receive far more important messages and letters of congratulation from people in far more exalted positions than myself. In spite of this I felt a very real need to send, as a very ordinary " man in the street " my most sincere personal congratulations to ,not only yourself but also to your Government and the P.L.O.

The long rocky road to a final peace in the Middle-East will not, as " experts " will no doubt have told you and will continue not be an easy one but at least the Will is there and Israel is well used to " long and rocky roads.

During my lifetime, I am 55, I have witnessed many momentous occasions too numerous to list, some joyous and a lot tinged with sadness. Your countrys achievements speak very clearly.

In closing, may I, very humbly, send my very sincere Best Wishes for the future, at least now there is a chance.

Yours very sincerely,

Conf

Sehr geehrter Herr Ministerpräsident,

Ihre Arbeit zur Einigung mit den Palestiniensern kann ich von Herzen begrüßen. Ich bin der Meinung, das ist ein Schritt in die Zukunft. Einigung ist richtig und hilft Blutvergießen zu vermeiden. Uns Menschen wurde der Geist gegeben, nutzen wir ihn und nicht in erster Linie die Waffen, die wir geschaffen haben!

Ein nächster Schritt müßte die Einigung der Religionen sein: nicht der Haß der Andersgläubigen ist im Sinne Gottes, sondern die Verbrüderung. Jede Religion (Judentum, Christentum, Moslem und Mormonen) wurde von Gott geschaffen und hat ihre Daseinsberechtigung. Es gibt viele Gemeinsamkeiten, nutzen wir sie, aber achten wir auch den Anderen.

Die Menschheit hat das Wissen, mit der Entwicklung der Umwelt weiter zu erblühen, oder mit ihr unterzugehen.

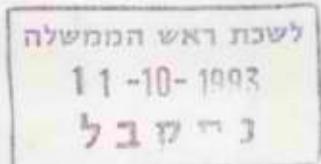

Ich wünsche Ihnen weitere Erfolge in Ihrer verantwortungsvollen Arbeit im Interesse der Menschheit.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Religion und Macht

Religionen wurden der Menschheit übergeben, sie wurden implementiert mit einem guten Vorsatz: wenn ihr nach den Geboten lebt, könnt ihr euch entwickeln, wenn nicht, gibt es Strafen, die bis zur Vernichtung gehen können. Die Menschenvölker sind verschieden, haben sich verschieden entwickelt. Um möglichst viele Menschen ansprechen zu können, wurden verschiedene Religionen geschaffen - von einem Gott!

Seit 1830 gibt es die Religion der Mormonen. Sie ist die der Welt jüngste Religion: Kirche Jesu Christi der Heiligen der letzten Tage. Das Wirken des Herrn Jesus Christus wird hier als Erretter der Welt gewürdigt. Sein Prophet war Joseph Smith (USA, 1805-1844). Er übersetzte den Text von den Metallplatten (1827-1830) ins Englische, die er vom Engel Moroni erhalten und ihm nach Beendigung der Arbeit wieder abgegeben hatte: Das Buch Mormon - ein weiterer Zeuge für Jesus Christus, die Heilige Schrift der Mormonen - das über 5 Millionen Anhänger repräsentiert.

Der Koran ist die Heilige Schrift der Mohammedaner. Er wurde von Mohammed (570-632) in den Jahren 610 bis 632 (n. Chr.) als Offenbahrungen Allahs (mit Hilfe des Engel Gabriel, Heiliger Geist als Bote Allahs) verfaßt und verkündet. Mohammed spricht arabisch zu seinen Landleuten, damit sie Allahs Wort verstehen können. Der Urkoran ist bei Allah (im Himmel). Im Islam, mit mehr als 600 Millionen Anhängern, haben die hochgeehrte Jungfrau Maria -Mutter Jesu- und Jesu, als bevorzugter Prophet Allahs, ihre Bedeutung. Im Islam gibt es zwei Glaubensrichtungen: die Sunniten und die Schiiten.

Die christliche Religion hat ihre Wurzeln weit vor der Geburt Jesu im Alten Testament. Die Geburt Jesu leitete eine neue Etappe ein, die des Neuen Testaments. Engel Gabriel hat das mit Maria im Auftrage Gottes vorbereitet (Lukas 1). Die Reformation der katholischen Kirche durch Martin Luther führte zum evangelischen Glauben - zwei Glaubensrichtungen.

Die Religion der Juden basiert auf dem Alten Testament. Allah ist der arabische Name des Eingottes, der bei den Juden schon einige Jahrtausende den Namen Jahwe = Jehovah führte.

JHWH

(geschichtlich gesicherte Konsonanten des Eigennahmens)

Herr, Gott	Herr, Gott	Gott Israels	Allah
Mormonen	Christen	Jahwe
		Juden	Mohammedaner

Die Gläubigen aller vier Religionen beten zu demselben Gott!

Die Religionen sind eine Lebenshilfe. Der Glaube an den jeweiligen Gott kann für den einzelnen Menschen eine wichtige Hilfe sein. Ihm kann er seine Sorgen, Nöte und Freude mitteilen, kann Wünsche aussprechen, auch wenn er sonst keinen Ansprechpartner hat. Das geschieht im Allgemeinen durch das Gebet. Beten bedeutet auch, die Hoffnung nicht aufzugeben. Psychologen wissen, wie wichtig es ist, daß man sich aussprechen kann. Das erleichtert, das gibt neuen Lebensmut, schafft Freiräume für neue Taten.

Der Glauben an Gott ist Anleitung zur Selbsthilfe. Im Prinzip spielt es keine Rolle, in welcher Religion und Sprache das Gebet erfolgt. Auch Menschen die keiner Religion angehören, einen entsprechenden Willen zum Ausdruck bringen, können den gleichen Effekt erreichen.

Wieviel Menschen wissen eigentlich, daß viele Religionen gemeinsame Wurzeln haben, nicht nur die katholische und evangelische Kirche, wo sich die Menschen teilweise auch nicht verstehen.

Der Prophet Ezechiel (12) gibt zu bedenken: "Diese Leute haben Augen und wollen nicht sehen, haben Ohren und wollen nicht hören!"

Die Menschen sollen "... davon überzeugt werden, daß Jesus der Christus ist, der ewige Gott, der sich allen Nationen kundtut.- Und wenn darin Mängel sind, so sind es die Fehler von Menschen..." Das Buch Mormon.

"Allah liebt die nicht, welche über das Ziel schießen."
Koran II. Sure, Vers [191].

Die Menschen bekämpfen sich, die in ihren Ursprüngen alle an den gleichen Jesus glauben. Jede Kriegspartei betet zu dem selben Gott: Laß uns gewinnen und vernichte die anderen. Was soll Gott da machen? Das ist Mißbrauch der Religionen! In Wirklichkeit geht es um die Durchsetzung der Macht Einzelner (Gruppen), die ihre Positionen und den Glauben mißbrauchen. Hier hilft Gott nicht weiter, hier müssen endlich die Politiker Entscheidungen im Interesse der geknechteten Menschen fällen, damit die Verbrechen gegen die Menschlichkeit endlich beendet werden.

Der Haß gegenüber Andersgläubigen hat mit dem Anliegen der Religion(en) meiner Meinung nach nichts zu tun, er widerspricht ihr. Die Religionen (Berichte über das Leben, Erfahrungen, Hinweise) wurden den Menschen übergeben, um ihnen eine Richtschnur für ihr Handeln zu zeigen: so könnt ihr leben (z.B. 10 Gebote), aber wenn ihr nicht danach lebt, seit ihr gestraft - und da gibt es genug Beispiele.

Die Menschheit hat das Wissen, sich durch Krieg, Raub, Mord und Umweltverbrechen um ihre Existenz zu bringen (Gott hat seine Schöpfung "dahingegeben", Römer 1,18ff -?) - oder durch sinnvolle Anwendung der Wissenschaft zu überleben und unsere Erde zu einem blühenden Garten für alle zu machen. Das ist nicht nur eine wissenschaftliche Frage!

Prime minister Yitzhak Rabin
Jerusalem, Israel

Mr. Prime Minister;

This is I am sure, just one of the thousands of letters you will receive as a result of your heroic and epoch actions to finally bring peace to the Land of Israel and her people. As an American of Jewish descent I can, of course, never know what it has been like to struggle daily with the threats and ever present dangers that have surrounded Israel since her inception. I have never had to bury a son, daughter, relative or friend who has been violently killed as a result of an ancient cauldron of hatred ever bubbling over with bloodshed and terror. I have never had to seek protection in a bomb shelter or scan the horizon from a kibbutz gun tower. I have never gone to worship at the dawn of a new year to hear no the bombs drop on my beloved homeland.

I have never as the first strains of "Hava Nagila" filled the cabin of my El Al 747 as the first slip of the land my people has cherished for the millennia have into view. I have felt the electric thrill course to my very core as I touched Israeli soil for the very first time. I have stood on the Golan and felt the fierce determination to always keep my ancestral homeland safe and secure. I have filled the cracks of the Wall with prayers of hope and thanksgiving. I have felt the spray of the Kinneret on my face and have stood on the shores of Tiberias. I have climbed to the heights of Masada and have dug at an ancient tel. I have stood at the crest of Jerusalem and have surveyed the city my grandparents could only dream about, but never see.

I have welcomed the Sabbath on the shores of the Red Sea. I have recited the mournful Kaddish at Yad Vashem and have wept at Children's Pavilion. I have put my hands to its soil to plant trees - the symbol of eternal life.

My academic life has been dedicated to the study of the Holocaust. It is my dream to one day settle in Israel and work at Yad Vashem to educate future generations so that in the famous words of the sage we, the world, will not be condemned to repeat history.

I recently returned from a trip to Eastern Europe where in Kiev, I stood at the foot of Babi Yar where thousands of innocent Jews ~~were~~ were murdered by the Nazis.

Standing there in a cold, silent rain the importance of Israel as a beacon of hope, dignity and security was once again illuminated in my mind and heart.

I have put all of these thoughts down on paper today in the hope that they will in some way help to express my gratitude, admiration and respect toward for you. You will most certainly go down in history as a true hero, for you have dared to do what may have been destined to remain hollow rhetoric while our precious Israel continued to struggle in a world of hatred and death.

No one knows what lies ahead for Israel, the P.L.O. or her neighbors. What I do know is this; because of you there is hope; because of you, will we be able hear the sounds of laughing children instead of the wails of grieving mothers; because by you we can look to the peace of the future not the violence and hatred of the past; because of you there can be, at last Shalom b'Yisrael .... Peace. Toda, and G-d bless you.

My heart goes out to you and Foreign Minister Berez in these tenuous and historic days and I send you my thanks and prayers.

As a person of your generation I acclaimed and supported the establishment of a Jewish homeland. However, in recent years it has been most difficult for me to support financial aid to Israel as they continued land acquisitions and suppression of others - actions which Jews historically abhorred.

I will now support aid to Israel as I believe your recent actions demonstrate your country has grown to the stature of an international, responsible global community.

May this accord be the blossoming of a new era of peace.

Dear Prime Minister Rabin,

As a typical Jewish-American woman who loves and supports Israel and all Jewish things, I wanted you to know how eloquent you were at Monday's ceremony and how appropriate and understandable was your demeanor. Your words brought me to tears.

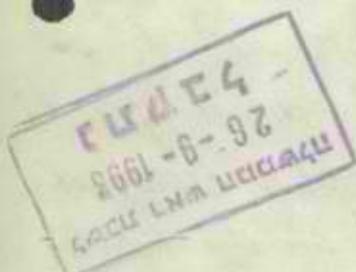

Since I have also, like you, always opposed meeting with the PLO, I certainly understood how difficult it was to go through what you did and to have to shake hands with the "worst one of all." But I thought you were noble, and because of the way you have handled the whole process, you have won me over to your side, and now I too hope good will come of it. I pray with all my heart that all your efforts come to fruition, for the sake of all of us Jews.

I just watched on television as the two of you signed your Middle East peace agreement at the White House today.

In the late 1960s I was in the American Army. Though many soldiers who shared my barracks or my office had left and gone to Vietnam, I remained in Germany and was grateful that I had been left behind, not least because of my German fiancee. Still, each month we had an "alert" during which all personnel changed into duty uniform, were issued weapons, and climbed into vehicles ready to run away from the Russian tank assault we thought we had to be prepared for. In February 1967 the alert changed. While we all sat in our trucks or jeeps the word passed quickly that we were to go to the Rhine-Main air base to be transported to Israel to help in the war. But before dawn broke, the commanding officer of the small post went to each driver to announce "the war is over!"

Twenty years ago my German wife and I were living in Tokyo. We learned that it was traditional for citizens to file into the Imperial Palace during the first few days of the new year to wish the emperor well. And at one point, American I and German she stood inside the stone walls. We each had a Japanese flag in hand, and I realized we were waiving them in honor of one of the first faces I had been taught to hate. As though World War II had never really happened.

My wish for your children, and their children, is that they will never have interesting stories like these to tell.

And my very personal thanks to both of you for having given me such a magnificent present on this, my 53rd birthday.

Dear Mr. Vickers,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Your Excellency,

I wrote to you earlier this year concerning the deportation of four hundred Palestinians to Lebanon, and I was pleased and honoured to receive a reply explaining the situation and assuring me that Israel would explore every avenue leading to peace and prosperity in the region. This has indeed proved to be the case, as we have seen from the signing of the Peace Agreement between Israel and the Palestinians in Washington last month. I would like to congratulate Your Excellency and Mr Arafat on this courageous act of recognising old enemies as fellow human beings who have a right to live in peace, whatever offences have been committed in the past. This has renewed hope for other places in the world where people have been fighting and dying for years, including a part of my own country, Northern Ireland. I am aware that there is much opposition to these moves among the Israeli and Arab nations, and much more work to do to realise a lasting peace. I only hope that peace and justice prevail, and my thoughts and prayers are with you and all the people of Israel and Palestine at this time.

Yours sincerely and respectfully,

James Vickers

Dear Mr. Yitzhak Rabin,

Please accept our hearty congratulations for reaching a historic accord between Israel and P.L.O. on 13-9-1993.

It was none the easy to solve this complicated problem but for your sincere and continuous efforts. Now you and your nation have a sound sleep. Please see that this agreement is materialised in word and spirit. It is also the responsibility of the international community in its entirety to help both Israel and P.L.O. to overcome the tremendous difficulties which are still standing in the way of reaching a final and comprehensive settlement. This agreement signed on 13-9-1993 is viewed as the first step towards a more comprehensive accord to be negotiated by the P.L.O. and Israelis after two years.

Once again I thank you.

Yours sincerely

Middle East: Arafat and Rabin seem close to a historic breakthrough. But already firebrands on both sides are out in force against them.

HE IS THE TERRORIST PERSONIFIED. NO, HE IS A FREEDOM fighter. He is a statesman, the founding father of a homeless nation that has endured the wilderness for 45 years. No, he is a ruthless plotter who orders the killing of babies. The Palestinians and Israelis both need someone like Yasir Arafat—national hero and national demon. To millions beyond the Middle East, he is an instantly recognizable figure, with his stubby face, the pistol on his hip, the checkerboard kaffiyeh hiding his bald head. After decades on display, Arafat, 64, is more than a little shopworn. His organization is nearly bankrupt, his power is fading and his supporters are slipping away. His enemies are legion, inside and outside the Palestinian movement. But Arafat is an escape artist, a wily survivor. He has at least one more gamble in him, one desperate attempt to restore his standing and redeem the promises he couldn't keep.

His rescuers turn out to be two other old men, also approaching the end of their careers, also seeking one last chance to change stalemate into triumph. Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, 71, is a bleakly pragmatic military man who spent decades cracking Arab skulls and now wants to be known as a peacemaker. His foreign minister and longtime political rival, Shimon Peres, 70, is an idealistic intellectual, a tireless searcher for peace who strikes some Israelis as a washed-up political hack. Each an adversary of the other two, the three old men are the unlikeliest of partners in what could be the most dramatic Mideast breakthrough since Anwar Sadat's mission to Jerusalem 16 years ago. But then, as Rabin put it, "Peace is not made with friends. Peace is made with enemies."

Their negotiating breakthrough was reminiscent of communism's collapse—the unthinkable suddenly and hopefully at hand. For years, the Arabs and Israelis had been models of intransigence, lurching from desert battlefield to barren peace table and back again. With the end of the cold war, the world changed around them, weakening Arafat but also sapping Rabin's sense of security. Spiritually exhausted, they acted out of a desperate sense that time and opportunity were slipping away. If a compromise could not be achieved now, Rabin and Arafat would be overtaken by extremists on both sides—Israeli hard-liners and Muslim fundamentalists.

The three old enemies stole a march on the opponents of compromise by authorizing secret negotiations—in Norway, of all places. They left Washington almost entirely out of the loop, turning to the Americans for political and financial support only after they had cut their deal. They abandoned long-held positions. Israel finally dealt directly with Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization, after years of insisting it would never do so. PLO negotiators settled for gradual autonomy, instead of an immediate Palestinian state, in territory now occupied by Israel.

Tough sell: Israeli hard-liners protesting

Last week a draft of their agreement on Palestinian autonomy was published, and the parties seemed to be on the verge of signing it. Instead, they haggled over the crucial side issue of mutual recognition. In effect, Arafat had long since conceded Israel's right to exist, free from terrorism and the threat of extermination. But now the promise had to be made explicitly, and by late in the week, the parties were still groping for words, giving their critics time to undercut the deal. The agreement may yet be signed this week or next, probably without a face-to-face meeting of all three old enemies. But delay could doom the peace plan, now that firebrands on both sides are out in force against it.

In Israel, Jewish settlers demonstrated angrily, calling Rabin a "traitor." A group of right-wing rabbis warned about "a civil war that is likely to break out as a result of [the government's] dangerous and crazy steps." In the occupied territories, Hamas, the rapidly growing Islamic Resistance Movement, warned darkly: "We will never agree to be part of this game." In Damascus, Ahmed Jabril, an extremist Palestinian warlord with links to Iran, threatened to kill Arafat. "Arab terrorism and the Jewish reaction will smash this agreement to pieces," predicted Eliakim Haetzni, a leader of the West Bank settlers.

If it survives, the agreement would establish a five-year interim period of Palestinian self-rule, starting in the Gaza Strip and the ancient West Bank city of Jericho (map, page 23). The Israeli military would withdraw from Arab population centers, and the Palestinians would elect a governing council. The agreement left for later the most difficult issues, including control over Jerusalem and the status of the 120,000 Jewish settlers in the occupied territories. If the agreement is signed, it may be quickly matched by separate settlements between Israel and three Arab neighbors: Jordan, Syria and Lebanon. "The horizons to peace are open," Rabin declared.

What made peace possible was the fact that Arafat's horizons had narrowed. The breakup of the Soviet Union had deprived him of his superpower patron. Now, in Bill Clinton, he faced probably the most pro-Israeli U.S. president in recent memory. The war in the Persian Gulf had been politically and financially ruinous for Arafat. He backed the wrong horse, Iraq's Saddam Hussein, and lost his access to the deep pockets of Saudi Arabia and the other gulf states. The PLO went almost broke, its billions of dollars in reserves nearly depleted. Supporters within the PLO began to drift away from Arafat. "This organization is finished, whether you go with the settlement to the end or drop out of the settlement now," said poet Mahmoud Darwish, who recently resigned from the PLO's executive committee.

The price of unity: As Arafat faded, the fundamentalists gathered strength. Estimates of their support in the occupied territories hovered around 35 percent. Arafat tried to co-opt the militants. Their price for joining forces with him was 40 percent of the seats on the Palestine National Council, the PLO's Parliament in exile, and a similar share of the 18-member executive committee. They also demanded that Arafat return to his old policy toward Israel: the dream of reconquering all of Palestine. The fundamentalists, in short, would settle for nothing less than co-opting Arafat. Instead, the PLO leader turned to the Israelis.

He found them more receptive than ever. In last year's Israeli election, Rabin and his Labor Party had run against the conservative Likud bloc on what amounted to a peace platform endorsed by Washington. Israeli voters expected results from Rabin, the general who led Israeli forces to victory in 1967. "As the one who brought all the territories to Israel, and as a symbol of war in Israel, he personally wants to enter history as a hero of

Monsieur le Premier Ministre,

J'ai l'honneur et le plaisir de vous rédiger cette heureuse lettre, après l'immense émotion qui a envahit mon corps et mon âme en cette grande journée du 13 Septembre 1993 qui restera gravée dans l'histoire de l'humanité à tout jamais et plus particulièrement dans le cœur de mes Frères Palestiniens et mes Amis Israéliens, dont hélas ! quelques uns des deux bords ne savent pas encore, et ne réalisent pas tout de suite l'ampleur de cette date historique ; qui à mes yeux vient de faire naître une nouvelle vie dans un nouveau monde ; que je souhaite à la lumière des justes, plein de bonheur, de joie et de sécurité pour chaque personne dans toute la région.

C'est pourquoi j'ose ainsi hasarder cette missive, dont vous daignerez peut-être ne point condamner la témérité, sinon la naïveté, en vous joignant une Photo prise tout récemment durant nos vacances en Tunisie en compagnie de mon épouse (une Algérienne comme-moi) et ma petite fille née début 1992 ; de nous la dédicacer avec Monsieur PERES Ministre des Affaires étrangères.

Et bien entendu nous espérons recevoir la vôtre en compagnie de Monsieur PERES dédicacée à notre attention.

Il ne me reste qu'à vous souhaiter In. Chollah que beaucoup de mes Frères Arabes et Musulmans manifesteront leurs joies de la même façon que moi à votre égard et tous nous prierons qu'aucune goutte de sang ne coulera dorénavant dans la région, et ce durant toute l'éternité en mémoire des hommes comme vous qui par leur vision, leur courage et leur obstination ont su donner la chance à la PAIX. Et je souhaite aussi que les seuls combats qui restent à faire, c'est ceux du sport dans toute sa grandeur; et pourquoi ne pas voir un jour nos amis Israéliens Finalistes cette fois-ci dans les jeux Méditerranéens et que leur drapeau flotte sur la baie d'Alger la blanche et acclamé par TOUTE LA POPULATION. Je crois que ce n'est plus un rêve, mais bel et bien une réalité que je pronostiquerai dans l'avenir tout proche.

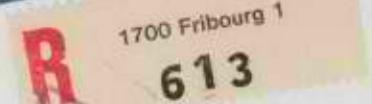

Et bien voilà! j'ai pris la liberté de vous écrire ces lignes de mes propres mains tremblantes en vous faisant savoir que je ne suis ni Politicien, ni Rien, j'ai tout simplement horreur des extrémistes de tout bord, et des personnes qui n'évoluent pas celle une bête sauvage, AH! si je pouvais aussi apporter ma modeste contribution à la Paix; que Dieu soit avec vous.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur le premier Ministre, mes respects les plus profonds.

H. Boumed

Dear Mr Rabin,

I would like to take few moment of your times so to congratulate you for the brave gesture you offered Mr Arafat so to achieve Peace on both side. It is not going to be easy for the whole European states to come to term with this amazing feast. but be assured you are in my prayers.

Now that you have made a formidable step, I would hope you are not forgetting the Elohim. I am sure you know I am talking about our Forefathers, those intelligent beings who are from another planet, who created us. You can find the Elohim's name in your old testament.

Few years ago they have asked you by their son the last of the Prophets that is on earth, whose name is Rael, to ask the State of Israel to build them an embassy, so that we could welcome them For without the neutrality of an embassy, free air spaces and an official welcome, an unannounced and undesired landing would have enormous political, economic and social repercussions with disastrous consequences worldwide.

I have found that the State of Israel, do not take this seriously. And do not believe in such a strange thing from a earthman named Rael. Perhaps if you remember that no ones believed Jesus, and you all paid a bitter and expensive price.

Now that the state of Israel has been returned to your people, do not make the same mistake, because I Suzanne Mazabras is coming foward to let you know that the Elohim have helped me all my life, and I didnot knew who these gentle people were. They have guided me through telepathy toward their revelations and told me it was them. I have witenessed their amazing and powerful technology that I assure you is not from this earth. They have guided me toward Rael, I have meet him last Christmas and I assure you he is well the son of the Elohim and the last of the Prophets. If you do not want to recognize him, this is your privilege. But remember Mr Rabin, When I meet Rael, it was like meeting Jesus in a more modern times, I knew he is the last of the Prophets because I am a sensitive, my inner antennas could'nt fool me.

We are approaching the years two thousand, the year of the Apocalypse has arrived. The Elohim have made their desire know that they want to come on earth, so to help us ease the violence, and give us their technology for they are twenty five thousand years in advace from us.

I would hope you will not refuse their wishes, remember you are their privileged. They want to lend in Israel this is their wishes, because it is there that they have started their scientific creations. I hope you will honor this soon. If you want to know more about their revelations, I would be very happy to inform you, and to guide you toward their son the last of the Prophets. I would hope you will take my letter very seriously for it mean a positive step toward the Golden years, and the end of violences.

May the Elohim direct your path and wishes.

Sincerely,

Shalom,

Mr. Labin:

I was deeply moved
by your talk in Washington.
Thank you for your efforts toward peace. It took a brave man to do what you did. I spent 6 weeks in Palestine last year. I pray for

Dear Mr. Rabin,

Congratulations, please at last. I am very pleased to see you and Mr. Arafat shake hands.

Now that you and Mr. Arafat became one, it is most important to state, and this is a must, a Middle East Common Market be established in the Gaza Strip and carried out with the maximum speed.

I came from Malta and I now live in California.

Sincere good wishes,

Greetings Mr. Prime Minister Rabin,

I and the rest of the world held our breath, and our hearts were beating joyfully, as we watched one of the most historical events of all humankind's history, unfold before our eyes and ears. Congratulations sir on taking this marvelous first step towards uniting the two peoples of Israel, the sons of Abraham! God had blessed Abraham and told him he would be the father of many nations*. It is so timely now, that the nations from Abraham find peace at long last!

I was so pleased to hear you say in your speech, September the 13th 1993 in Washington D.C. before many witnesses including former Presidents Gerald Ford, George Bush, Jimmy Carter and President * see Genesis 17:4-6.

Bill Clinton, that you and Israel were going to give back to the Palestinian people, Jericho, the city that God almighty, our Sovereign Lord, had given to Israel when they were his chosen people at the time. It is so very appropriate now, especially, sir for you all to do this because now is the time that "The Great Prince, Michael has stood up to take up greater rule and power in the almighty's Kingdom over all the nations!" while some may not like what has occurred and may try to destroy the peace or resist it, it shall prevail and be everlasting because it is from the almighty through his Great Prince Michael who was foretold to do just what has occurred, gather all the nations and bring them under God's invisible rulership in the heavens.

See Daniel 7: 9-14 The earth is his foot-stool, the territory of his Kingdom in heaven.

Some are asleep to the real meaning of our times and its events, but they shall become awake and enlightened, knowledgeable! Others shall refuse to open their eyes and ears! Don't sit over this! just continue to stand firm sir, you and all who are with you, for what is right. Be like stars guiding you people to true light! of course the most important event is that Michael has taken up greater power over the nations! Soon wonderful changes for the good of all people shall come in, Daniel 12:1-4, 8-10.

Mr. Robin, God almighty has taken up his power, he is head over all. He has the power and might to give strength to all, I Chronicles 29:11, 12. Psalm 22:26-31 tells us, the poor shall eat and be satisfied: Those who seek Him will praise the Lord: "all the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you." "For the Kingdom is the Lord's and he rules over the nations."

Psalm 33:8-22 says: "Let all the earth fear the Lord, let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him." "The Lord looks from heaven, he sees all the sons of men. He considers all their works".<sup>4</sup>

"Behold the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his mercy, to deliver their soul from death and to keep them alive in famine".

"He is our help and our shield, because we have trusted in his holy name".

God has installed his messiah, the great Prince Michael, the Son of man, in his heavenly Kingdom as the prophets foretold he would,
Daniel 7: 9-14, 12: 1, Daniel 2:44, 45.

what a blessed event sir! Peace in Israel and the world (in time) is a sign the New King has stood up, Isaiah 32:1-8, 15-18, Isaiah 2:2-4.

I too sir, have a role to play in this! as an ambassador in the earth, representing God's Kingdom rule, I had the pleasure to have been informed of God as to what he wanted the nations to do, especially Israel and the arab peoples, get his blessings, Amos 3:7. In harmony with serving as one of his messengers and prophets in the earth today, a platform from God almighty was sent out around the world to important representatives of the people in August of 1992. That platform sir, encouraged you to do just what you have done sir. It is in harmony with the U.N Resolution 242 (1967) of 22nd of November also.

Before true peace can come to the world sir, we must recognize the true God of the universe and his Deputy Son and we must obey the laws of God as well as the rightful laws of the governments and other bodies he has allowed to come into existence, Romans chapter 13.

It is right then, as was mentioned in Gods platform, that the territory taken in the 1967, 6 day war be returned to the arab peoples.

It is right that Israel withdraw armed forces from these areas of the 1967 war, (territory taken).

The people* have a right to statehood, sovereignty and political independence.

* arab, Palestinian people.

They have a right to live in peace.<sup>16</sup>
This platform or message was sent to the Arab League and Mr. Bill Clinton when he was running for office six also. I'm sure all parties read it.

I am delighted to see God's message taken seriously and acted upon.

I am honored to represent the Most High and his Deputy Son as one of their Saints, Psalm 145:10, Daniel 7:18, 21-22-27. I am honored to serve in that Kingdom of God and delighted to see the almighty give its earthly territory to the people of the saints, those who respect them and appreciate how God used them to feed them food in due season, (for life).

God soon shall "open his hand also and satisfy the desire of every living thing." "He is near to all who call on him in truth. He will hear their cry and save them. He preserves all who love him. all flesh shall bless his holy name forever and ever.

God's saints have the job of representing the Most High and Michael, the Son of man, the messiah, in the earth now.<sup>7</sup> and later as part of that Kingdom government that shall rule the entire earth.

God's "true saints shall make known to the sons of men, (humankind) His mighty acts and the glorious majesty of his kingdom which is an everlasting Kingdom;" Psalm 145: 10-21.

I have the honor Mr. Rabin to tell you that if you put trust in God almighty and his Deputy Ruler, the in Coming Messiah, Michael, the Son of man, Daniel 12:1, 7: 9-14, you shall be one of the "Princes" that the almighty picks from among humankind to represent him in his "New world Order" that we can say officially began September 13th 1993 with the signing of the peace pact! Isaiah 32:1-8 foretold that many "Princes" would be chosen.

So, Mr. Rabin prove to be a star shining brightly to others. Take all the needed steps I've outlined and get a blessing for your self and your people too.
Now is the time to put faith in God's deputy the true Messiah, Michael the son of man, ( also known on earth<sup>(8)</sup> as Jesus Christ ), Daniel 12: 1-4, 8-10, Revelation.

( Greek Scripture ), 12: 1-12, Rev. 21: 1-6.

The next step to lasting peace and preservation is acknowledging Gods part in all this and honoring the worlds new ruler, God almighty and his Deputy Son! God bless you Prime minister Rabin and all who serve there with you. Shalom!

Sincerely,
Ms. Ellen Wood

P.S. Mr. Prime Minister Rabin, I read of your visit to one of the so-called Christian establishments that has officially existed only since the 4th century.

Don't make the mistake sir, in thinking all that make claims to be God's representatives, truly are! Look for the works, fruitage!
Those who have shed innocent blood are not blameless in Gods eyes! True Christians don't harm others. also sir, God expects you to keep the worship he gave you people, clean, pure. you know he hates idols, and idolatry sir. This is what got Israel in deep trouble before with God, Jeremiah 13:8-27, Ezekiel 6:4-9, 13. Moses mediated a covenant that warned about making or using idols, religious relics, etc. at Exodus 20:1-6. God also is not a trinity sir! The messiah is not in substance, part of the almighty Supreme Sovereign! He is his son, his King over the earth, his Deputy Ruler along side himself sir! Beware, leading your people into error again! God is not using these people. They are counterfeits whom he shall deal with yet if they don't clean up Revelation 18:1-6. They are part of a Babylonian false system.

Look for truth and good works sir. The true prophets stand out in this way. They serve the people freely. They don't get the people to serve them. They don't face the flock either. The pure worship is free to all, Revelation 22:17.

Mr. Prime minister Rabin, God intends to keep pure worship in the earth and to remove all false worship regardless of how powerful the religious empire may be. He intends to have only one way to worship, one pure language and all the nations shall learn it.

sir, see Zephaniah 3:8-13.

If you want God's blessing and the rest of Zephaniah 3:14-20 fulfilled for your people sir, don't do as Zephaniah 3:1-7 warns. God has punished Israel several times already to show he will not tolerate false worship. He warns officials to be careful here.

I am a true prophet sir like Deborah of old, see Judges 4th and 5th chapters. God uses women too to speak to the people and to represent him. I am the adopted seed of Abraham sir, the true representatives of God in the earth today to the nations, Galatians 4:1-9, 22-31, also Galatians 3:6-29.

Mr. Prime Minister these are critical times! God has brought you to this point but you must abide by his laws and keep true and pure in worship. You must lead your people into real truth now! a worldwide re-education program on pure worship will get underway soon under God's rule. You must begin now to preserve what he already delivered to you people!

you all must also except God's Messiah:
now and recognize you need to be cleaned up and saved sir, Revelation 7:9-17. Survival is at stake sir, move quickly in all matters.
