Dear Friends,

As one of this year's laureates for the Nobel Peace Prize and regret the delay in responding, I would like to thank you and your members for your warm words of congratulations.

Peace is not the enterprise of just one person - it is the achievement of many, especially that of the late Johan Jorgen Holst. Without his personal vision and commitment, we would not be on our way to fulfilling our dream. I only regret that he was not granted the time to share with us this great honor. In my heart he will always be one of the co-recipients.

Sincerely yours,

Y. Rabin

Dear Mirjam,

On behalf of the Prime Minister, Mr. Yitzhak Rabin, thank you for your letter dated March 10, 1993.

We are happy to learn of your love for Israel, and hope that in the not too distant future you and members of your young people's group will be able to visit our beautiful country.

Peace negotiations are currently taking place, and we are hopeful that an agreement will be reached to the satisfaction of all citizens of this region, which will enable Jews and Arabs to live in peace and security.

Israel is not willing to return the Golan Heights, but rather to withdraw from parts of the Golan within the framework of a full peace treaty with Syria, including diplomatic relations and the movement of people and goods, and an agreement on security arrangements.

With warm greetings from Jerusalem,

Sincerely yours,

Eitan Haber

Gudā, 24 October -94.

Dear Prime Minister Y. Rabin,

After what happened in Tel Aviv my sympathy for the Jewish and Palestinian people is greater than it ever has been. The peace-process is a great challenge and very important - if everything seems hopeless to day I know you will succeed in the end. And many people all over the world who never have taken a stand in this matter before will now wake up and a flow of disgust will meet the people who are trying to interfere the peace-process. The extreme muslims, the fundamentalists, will also sooner or later discover that they have moderate muslims against them - men, women and children who want to be free and get out of the Prison of Islam. It's good to know that the Holy War will come to an end and Israel will eventually triumph over her Arab enemies before the end of the 20th Century - the end of the sun. But the extreme elements in Israel who are against the Isralian Government and the peace-process must not interfere and take up arms - this is the worst thing that can happen, it means Civil War. You must remember that 75% of the Palestinian people want peace, the other, the 25%, belong to Hamas and other brainwashed groups. I'm also afraid that a murder of Arafat will end in a Civil War - a Civil War will make a free way for the extreme muslims in Iran, Iraq, Libya and Arabia to take part in it and a Thid World War will break out - a new strategy is therefore of a vital importance for Israel, Jordan, Palestina - and also Libanon and Syria - blind terror and killing of innocent people must stop. In Beirut, for instance, the Iran fundamentalists have a school for Palestinian children where they are being brain-washed and learn to hate - take the children out of these schools and back to a safe place where they can learn good things about life and they'll be grateful for that. The young man who killed himself in the bus-explosion in Tel Aviv is a product of the fundamentalists inveteracy and ignorance. It should also be all impor-tant for Arafat and his people to find and eliminate these misleaders who have seduced so many of his own people for a very long time. Maybe it's possible to infiltrate Hamas by some of his own people? You must work together as a team of good surgeons who are saving a dear friend who has been wounded by your worst enemies. And Iran, Iraq and Libya are your worst enemies. All of you who are searching for peace should take David's words for granted and put it in your mind: "The LORD said to my LORD, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies my foot-stool."

I know very well that a solution for peace is not made in one day after so many years of hate, strife and spilling of blood, but I know for certain that the only way to peace is reconciliation and co-operation - then the Isralian soldiers can say to the Palestinian children who are throwing stones in the streets - do you want to go to school and learn to read and write or do you want to throw stones? When hate is darkening the soul one can't any longer see the difference of a friend and an enemy, and that's why so many innocent people on both sides have been killed and suffer - the killing of old people and children will never bring peace but a hindrance to obtain peace. I look for the day when Israel, Jordan, Palestine (Judea) and Syria as well - and people from Libanon - go together to chase the intruders from Iran and other Arabian countries out. Then a new law will occupy a new land around Syria, Judea and Palestine. The great barbarian Empire will crumble before the century of the sun is finished.

Some may say that the peace-process is hanging in a thin thread - yes, but a very strong one, ready to be lifted up by God's finger - too high to be reached by the priest-regime in Iran or other in the world who want to stop the peace-process. A peace will also mean better times for the Jews who have suffered so much persecution and intolerance throughout history - peace in the Middle East means a new and a better day to-morrow for the whole mankind. God bless your efforts!

Dear Mr. Peterson,

On behalf of the Prime Minister, Mr. Yitzhak Rabin, thank you for your letter dated July 10, 1994.

Although you feel otherwise, the Prime Minister and Government of the State of Israel are grateful for the role Norway and its leaders played in enabling Israel and the Palestinians to take a giant stride toward peace.

The Members of the Government and the Prime Minister believe that we are on the right path, one which will combine our efforts for peace and security. We chose this path for the sake of our children and grandchildren, and we believe that there is a chance for an end to wars.

The Israelis and Palestinians have a difficult mission - to build mutual trust. Yet the bloodletting must not place the chance of peace in doubt. We cannot erase the history of dialogue and the advances we achieve each day. Though it may tarry - peace will come.

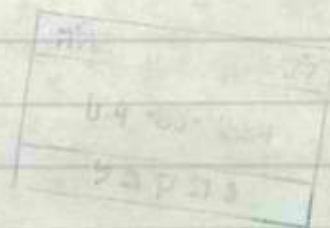

We appreciate your thoughts and prayers, and send you warm greetings from Jerusalem.

Sincerely yours,

I ask Israel to forgive Norway, that they pressed Israel to this peace agreement with P.L.O.

God has said, that He will bless those who bless Israel, and curse those who curse Israel. I think that Norway has not blessed Israel through this so-called peace agreement. It will be a curse for Israel.

God tried to stop Norway. God let the norwegian foreign minister Johan Fergen Holst die, but the norwegian government did not listen to God.

Therefore I beg Israel to forgive Norway, so that the curse of God shal not hit Norway.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister Y. Rabin

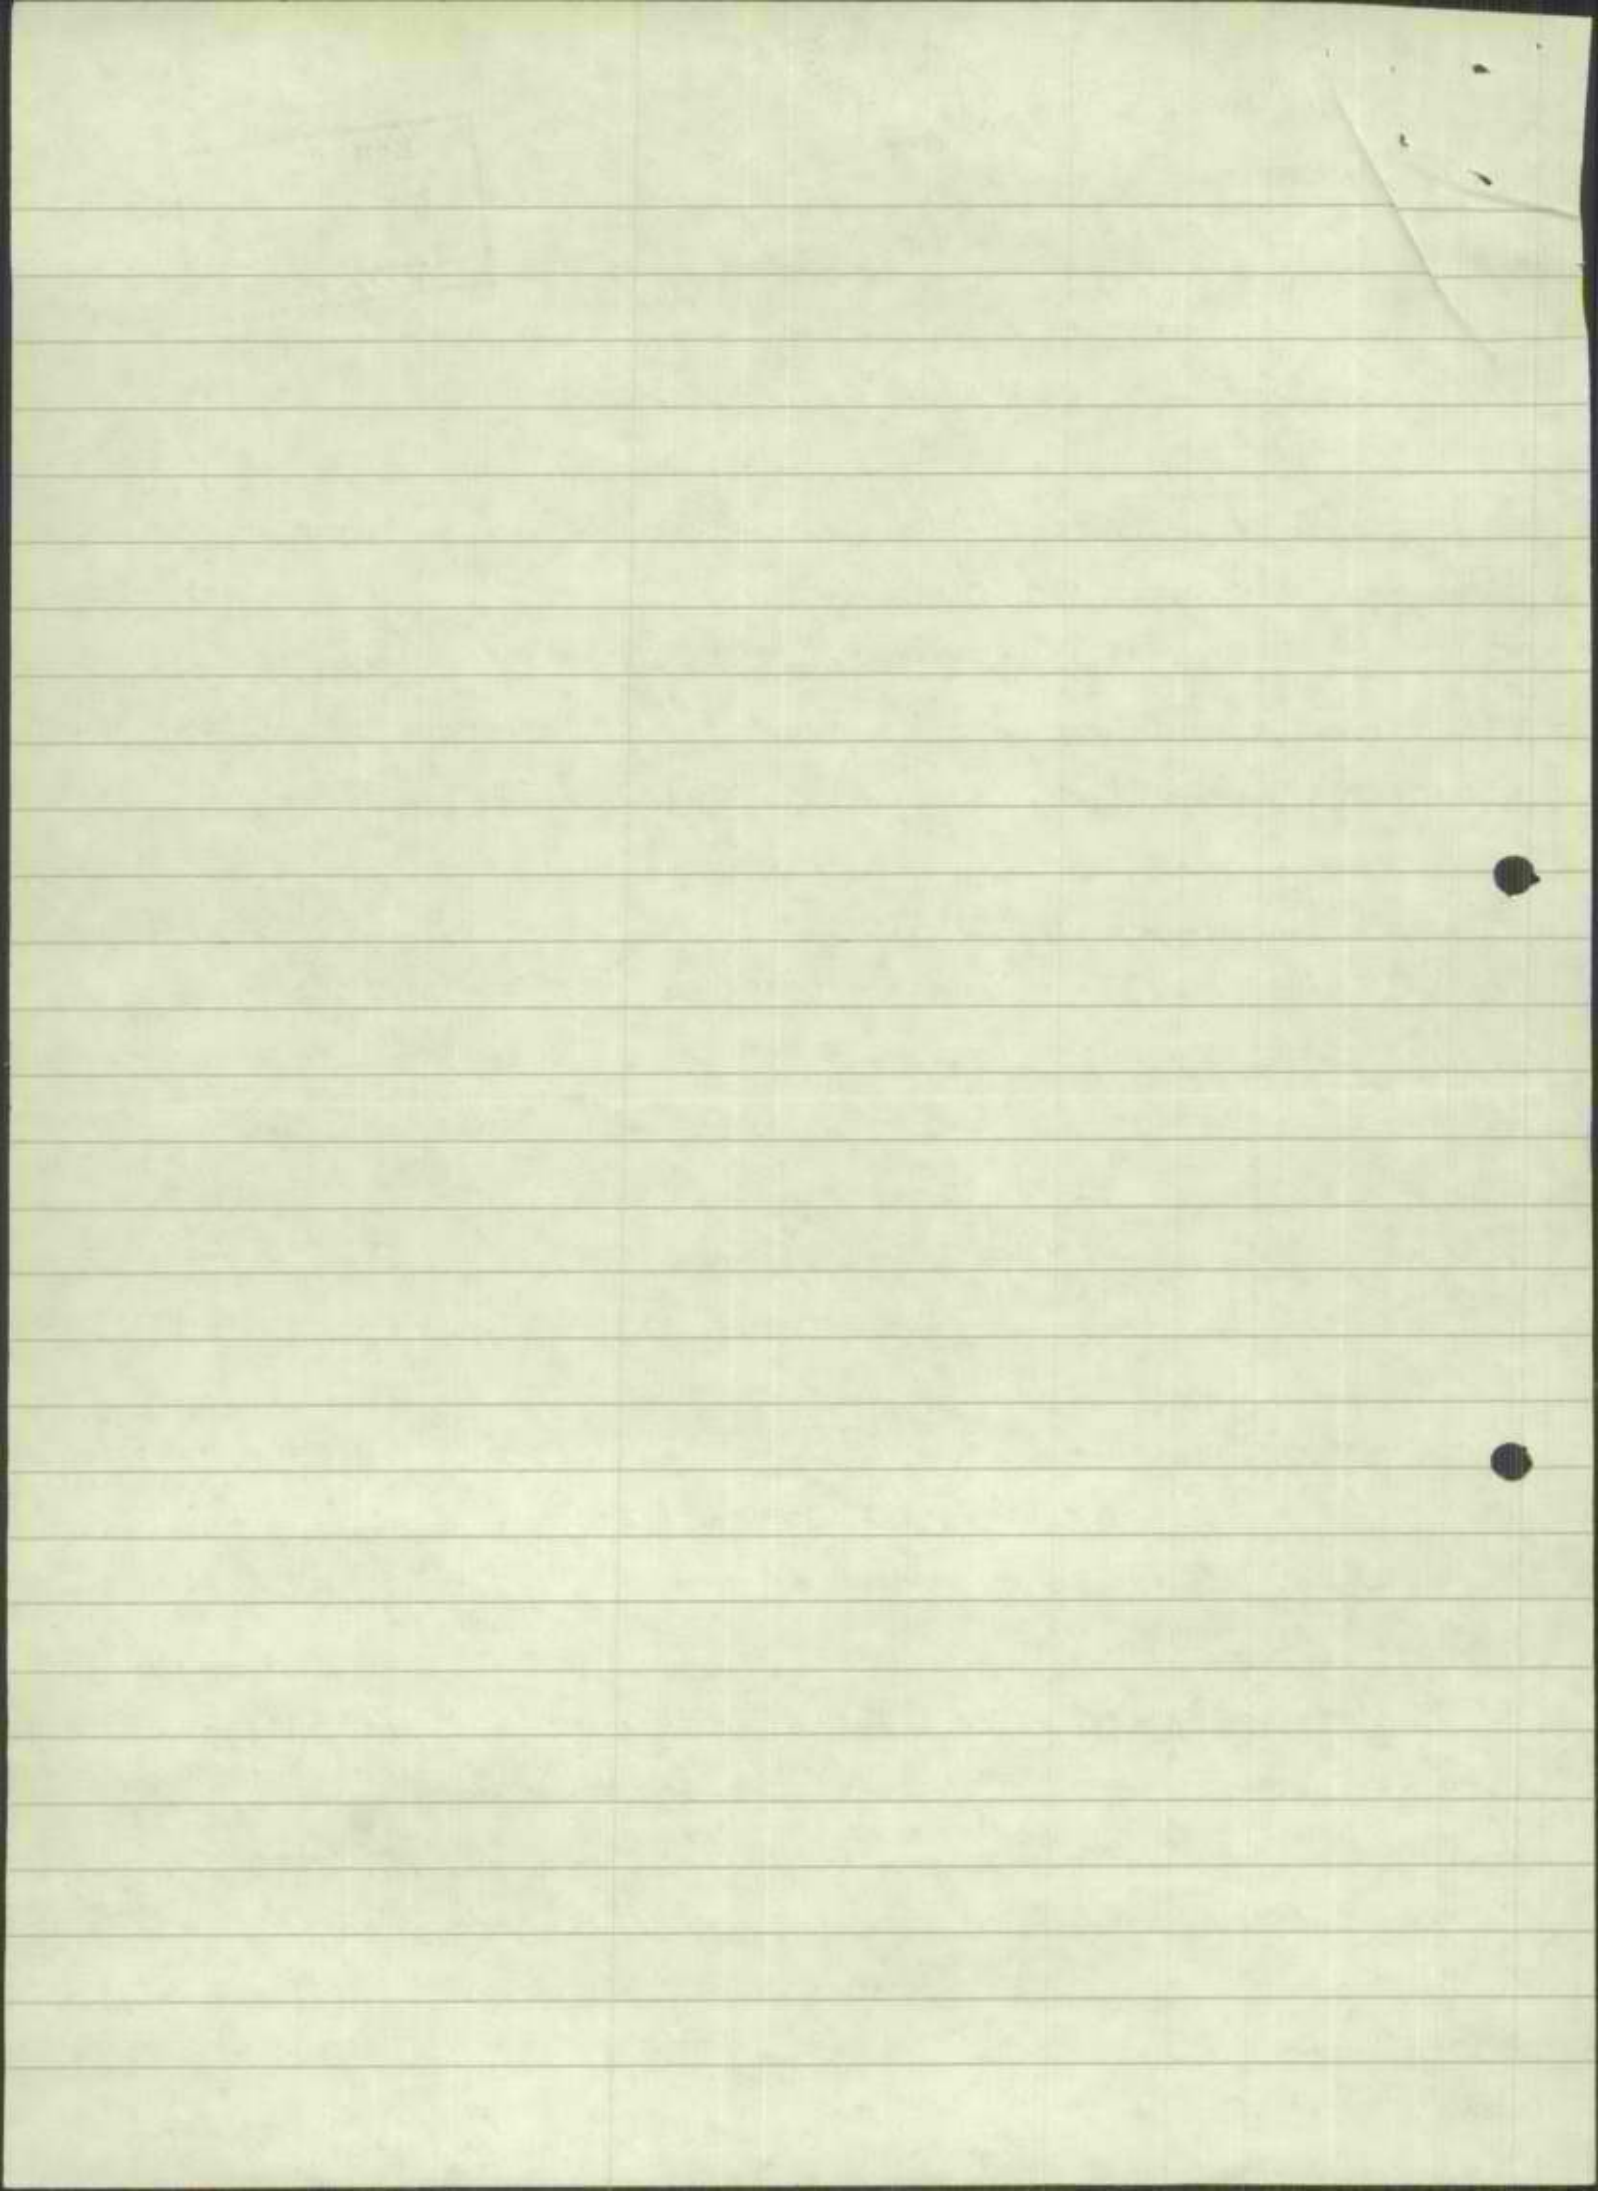

For a while ago, I was together with a group of Christian people in a church-meeting. The pastor talked about the role Norway had played in the "peace"-process in your country, and many Norwegians are very proud in what Norway had done in this connection.

We felt very strong that we had no reason to be proud at all. We had to bow down before the living God, and ask Him to forgive Norway, and also me, for what we are doing to His people and to His country. And now I will ask you Mr. Prime Minister to, to please forgive me and the Norwegian people for having strengthened your hand in a wrong way.

As a Christian and a believer in God, I am convinced that the initiative from some Norwegian people are not at all the best solution for Israel - the land and the people.

I really feel sorrow for what we Norwegians are doing, and I am afraid the future will show us no honour at all in the eyes of the Israeli people. I wish all the best for you, Mr. Prime Minister Rabin, and for Israel. I pray for you, and your country every day. I love the Jewish people. And I may ask the Lord bless you.

Yours faithfully Astrid Bentsen

I am a young norwegian christian. In the christian meetings I have attended the last weeks, I have heard much about Israel and the jews.

Before I thought the so-called "Oslo-agreement" was good. I had also a bit nationalistic pride as a citizen of a country that played a role in the negotiations.

Now I see, as it has been preached in the sunday church-service some weeks ago, that this agreement has "strengthened" your hands in a very bad way.

I just want you to, if you please can, forgive me because of my nationalistic pride because of the agreement and forgive my people for giving you this "help" that seems to be no good at all.

Dear Sir,

In the Morning Service in my church last week, I asked for God's forgiveness for the role my country Norway, and the Norwegian government of this country have played in the Peace negotiations between Israel and PLO. By encouraging you to accept the unholy conditions of the Peace Agreement with PLO, I believe you've been pushed into a dangerous situation. After having asked God to forgive myself and my people for this, I now write this letter in order to ask for your forgiveness as well. Please forgive us!

Dear Sir.

Today in our church we were led to ask God for forgiveness on behalf of our nation for having been party to the peace process with P.L.O which has led to Israel giving land for peace. The architects of this peace plan have strengthened the hand of Israeli leaders to form an alliance with P.L.O and act against God's will for His people and His land. We do not hate the Arabs and all Christians here in Norway wish and pray for peace in the whole of the Middle East, but not a 'pact with death and Hades' as it is written in Isaiah 28.

We pray to the God of Abraham,

Dear Mr. Primeminister Y. Rabin

We were a group of christian people together in a meeting yesterday. We talked about the role Norway had played in the "peace"-process in your country, and some of us had felt some pride in what Norway had done in this connection.

However we felt very strong that we had no reason to be proud at all.

We had to bow down before God and ask Him to forgive Norway for what we are doing to His people and to His country.

And now I ask you mr. primeminister to forgive the norwegian people for having strengthened your hand in a wrong way.

As a christian and a believer in God I am convinced that the initiative from some norwegian people are not at all the best solution for Israel, the land and the people.

I really feel sorrow for what we norwegians are doing and I am afraid the future will show us no honour at all in the eyes of the israelian people. I wish all the best for you, mr. primeminister, and for Israel.

Oslo, May 24th 1994

Dear Prime Minister I. Rabin!

As a norwegian christian and a friend of Israel and the Jewish people, I would on behalf of my country ask for Your and Your peoples forgiveness.

In the latest service in our church we asked our God (also Israels God) to forgive us, the norwegian people and our government for playing such an active part in the "peace-process" leading to an ungodly agreement ("The Oslo Agreement"). I believe in peace for Jerusalem, but not on false premises.

I pray and hope my country will stand by Israels side with no compromises, even if the hole world turns its back on Israel. I know Your people have mixed feelings about them who call themselves christians. But I can assure You that in this time thousands of norwegians christians and millions of christians all over the world, are on their face before God praying that God will hold His mighty hand over His own people Israel, and give Jerusalem peace.

I believe no weapon that is formed against

The Members of the Government and the Prime Minister believe that we are on the right path, one which will combine our efforts for peace and security. We chose this path for the sake of our children and grandchildren, and we believe that there is a chance for an end to wars.

The Israelis and Palestinians have a difficult mission - to build mutual trust. Yet the bloodletting must not place the chance of peace in doubt. We cannot erase the history of dialogue and the advances we achieve each day. Though it may tarry - peace will come.

We appreciate your thoughts and prayers, and send you warm greetings from Jerusalem.

Dear minister Y. Rabin.

I am an christian woman who love
Israel very much.

I am so sorry for what Norway and the Oslo - agreement have done. I believe that Israel is God's own country, it is the beloved and promised land of God.

I have prayed to God to forgive us; and will you also forgive us what the Oslo - agreement have done? All christian people in Norway don't agree with that agreement.

God bless you, give you wisdom

Sir, With this letter I would express an apology for Norway's participation in this Israel-PLO pact, the so-called Oslo-agreement. Please, accept this apology and forgive my country for the sin and grief we have caused upon your country Israel. We, the Christians in Norway, pray to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob's God that your "covenant with death shall be disannulled, and that your agreement with hell shall not stand. We pray for peace in Jerusalem and that the Lord shall bless Israel. Please forgive Norway for the betrayal.

Dear Yitzhak Rabin ^{629. 6/6/94}

We are two Norwegian girls who are very concerned about Israel.

We both have a deep love in our hearts for your country. We have visited Israel several times, worked in Givat Brenner and experienced 'the heat of the day'. We also have a deep love of God and want his holy name to be blessed. We know that he has chosen Israel as his beloved people. They who bless Israel will be blessed. We also love our own country, and want Norway to be blessed. We understand the desperate need the israelian government has to establish peace with the palestinian.

But, we beg you to turn to the ancient God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob instead of Arafat and his people. We are sorry to say that the Oslo agreement is a blind track and not what God has planned for Israel. We urge you to turn to God and not to the gentiles. God bless you and your government?

State Minister of Israel
YTZAK RABIN.

I see that Jerusalem is a problem for peace.
We can defend Jerusalem by the Holy Spirit of God. I have the Holy Spirit. Both the Jews, Christians and Muslims believe what is written in the Bible. For the Bible is written that Jerusalem is the city of David, the King of Israel. David is patriarch and the throne of David is everlasting. The tribe of Judah has the scepter. God is the God of whole earth.
God is the God of peace. Jerusalem is one as God is one and can not be separated. We have covenant with God, and Jerusalem is the capital of peace.
The covenant is a covenant for everlasting peace. You have for sure heard me crying on the street. Jerusalem is an everlasting city.

Soldater drept:

Israel ad- varer Syria

Den amerikanske fredsmegleren Dennis Ross kom i går til Syrias hoved-
stad Damaskus. Med
seg hadde han en advarsel fra Israel.

CORDELIA EDVARDSON

Jerusalem.

Israel holder, i hvert fall delvis, Syria ansvarlig for at fem israelske soldater ble drept i den såkalte sikkerhetssonen i Sør-Libanon forrige uke. Den spente atmosfæren i sonen har tilspilset seg og er nær kokepunktet, muligens en eksplosjon.

Sikkerhetssonen er landområdet i Sør-Libanon som siden 1982 er blitt patruljert av rundt 1000 israelske soldater og 2500 soldater fra Den Sør-Libanesiske Armé (SLA). Sonen har fungert tilfredsstillende som vern mot infiltrasjon og direkte angrep mot bebyggelsen innenfor israelsk grense. Men flere ganger er både israelske og libanesiske soldater blitt drept i geriljaangrep gjennomført av den iransk-støttede Hizbollah-militsen og palestinske grupper med base i Syria. Disse gruppene er svorne motstandere av fredsprosessen i Midt-Østen.

Forverret situasjon

Forrige uke forverret situasjonen seg. I løpet av to dager ble fem israelske soldater drept og fem såret i to angrep. Det første angrepet skjedde torsdag og ble utført av «PFLP-Generalkommando» som ledes av Achmed Jibril og har hovedkvarter i Damaskus. Organisasjonen er en utbrytergruppe fra Den palestinske frigjøringsorganisasjonen (PLO) og avviser PLO-leder Yasir Arafats mer moderate linje i forhold til Israel. Hizbollah-militsen har innrømmet at de sto bak fredagens angrep.

Israels statsminister Yitzhak Rabin sendte i går en klar advarsel til Syria. — Israel kommer til å gjøre alt som er nødvendig for å verne om landets sikkerhet, uavhengig av fredsforhandlingene, sa Rabin. Han hevdet også at Hizbollah og Jibrils organisasjon samarbeider og «bruker våpen som de får fra Iran via Damaskus.»

Hevnaksjoner?

Dermed reiste Rabin en anklagende pekefinger mot de syriske lederne. Det er rundt 40 000 syriske soldater i Libanon, et land Damaskus betrakter som sin politiske og strategiske bakgård. Syrerne har hittil nølt med å holde Hizbollah og de palestinske utbryterorganisasjonene i tømme. Damaskus mener at så lenge de retter sine angrep mot den såkalte sikkerhetssonen, bør de betraktes som geriljasoldater i kamp for å befri israelsk-okkupert område i Libanon.

Den store faren nå er at Israel gjennomfører hevnaksjoner som så kan føre til direkte konfrontasjon med syriske tropper. Det er ingen tvil om at Dennis Ross vil formidle Israels advarsler til syrerne og til president Hafez Assad personlig.

Oslo havn 1

Fornebu intet alternativ

Av havnedirektør
Per Mauritz Hanssen

Hans Lunder stiller meg noen konkrete spørsmål i Aftenposten 1.7. vedrørende Fornebu som alternativ til utvidelsen av Filipstad-terminalen.

I forbindelse med at Miljøverndepartementet utredet mulig etterbruk av Fornebu i 1991 ble også havneformål vurdert. Oslo havnevesen har meddelt sine synspunkter i den forbindelse til departementets konsulent, Asplan.

I sitt innlegg tillegger Lunder Oslo havnevesen avvisningen av Fornebu som alternativ samt argumentasjonen for dette. Deresom han hadde satt seg bedre inn i saken, ville han sett at det refererte sitat ikke stammer fra oss, men fra Asplans rapport. Således er det konsulentens konklusjon på grunnlag av alle relevante forhold.

Som planorgan for havneutbygging i Oslo finner Oslo havnevesen det forevrig ikke korrekt å uttrykke meninger om hvordan Bærum kommune bør disponere sine arealer. Ei heller drive planlegging i annen kommunes områder.

En side ved herr Lunders synspunkter er det nødvendige å imøtegå. I forbindelse med at en eventuell utbygging på Fornebu lett kunne nærme seg en prislapp på én milliard, synes han å tro at havneutbygging i Oslo skjer ved hjelp av kommune- eller statskassen og at man derfor gjerne kunne bruke penger ut fra en rekke havnevedkommende argumenter. Slik er det ikke. Havneutbygging i Oslo skjer utelukkende for havnekassens regning, dvs. utelukkende ved hjelp av avgifter og vederlag som havnens brukere erlegger. Dette setter selvsagt grenser for hva som rent økonomisk kan forsvares av investeringer. Filipstad med sine ca. 350 millioner ligger innenfor grensen.

Oslo havn 2

Tenk nytt!

Av Albert Nordengen

Partene har gått i skyttergravene og forsvarer med nebb og klør sine oppfatninger og stemmegivninger om containerhavn på Filipstad. Det gis ikke noe slingringsmonn. Partene er skråsikre i sine standpunkter.

Som formann i Oslo havnevesens styre i 12 år frem til 1988, kjenner jeg relativt godt til Havnevesenets behov for større arealer. Containerhavn forutsetter betydelig arealbehov. Dette har vært Oslo Havnevesens hodepine i mange år. De mest omfattende planer var å gjøre Ormøya og Malmøya til havneområder. Disse planene ble forlatt etter iherdige protester fra befolkningens side, og det ble inngått en gentlemen's agreement. Havneutbyggingen skulle stoppe ved Ormsundet.

Det må erkjennes at Oslo havn fra naturens side er lite egnet for en større containerhavn. I tillegg har vi uløste oppgaver – som trafikkavvikling og bevaring av kulturminner i Sørenga og Bjørvika. Revierhavnen og Vippetangen bør fortsatt
