Dear President Nixon,

I deeply appreciate your warm personal message of support for the Declaration of Principles and Agreement of Mutual Recognition signed between Israel and the Palestinians. The historic agreement is a legacy for our children, and future generations, to live in a world of peace and security, without hatred and violence.

Although the continued negotiations will be neither easy nor simple, I hope that all parties concerned will work together to lay the foundations for a better future.

I would like to add that I look back fondly to the warm relationship we had during my appointment in Washington, and deeply value your contribution to the first tentative steps which enabled these historic events to happen.

Very sincerely yours,

Y. Rabin

Dear Mr. Prime Minister,

From the time we first met in 1967 I sensed that you were a man of destiny.

Having known you when you were an Ambassador, Prime Minister, and even out of office I have never changed that opinion.

Many will try to take credit for the historic agreement between Israel and the P.L.O.

But I know that without your strong, courageous leadership it would not have happened.

You were the indispensable man.

Congratulations & warm regards -

Richard Nixon
